 yard of Falmouth as near to my two children entombed there as may be con-venient, in such decent manner as my executors shall think fit.

Item. I give and devise the Land I now live on purchased of William Maugh, the land & plantation in Stafford purchased of H^m Rife and that part of the " " Land I purchased of Col: Carter which lies be-tween the ridge road & Kentons Ordinary to my son Gustavus Wallace & his heirs forever, but if he should die before the age of twenty one years not having lawfull Issue, then I give the lands and plantation in Staf-ford purchased of Rife to my son Thomas & his heirs forever & the afo^r part of the land purchased of Carter & also that purchased of William Maugh to my son James and his heirs forever, the said James and Thomas pay-ing yearly the sum of five pounds each to their mother during her widowhood. Item. I give and devise that tract of land in Culpes-County containing eleven hundred and fifty acres of which I now have a quarter to my son Michael Wallace this tract forever, but if he should die before the age of twenty one years, not having lawfull Issue then I give the same to be equally divided to my sons William & John & their heirs, subject to and charged with the payment of five pounds from each of them yearly to their mother during her Widowhood. Item. I give and devise that part of the land purchased of Carter beginning at the ridge road and extending as far as Matthews land not to include any of the said Matthews lands, but to be bounded by his lines, and that tract of land on which the widow Steady lives, and also one hundred and three Acres adjoining on Branham & Melham near the double topped Mountain to my son James and his Heirs forever, but if he should die before age of twenty one years, not leaving lawfull issue then living I give & devise that part of Carter's and the Widow Sluder's to my son Gustavus & the hundred and forty three acres in Culpeper to my son Thomas subject to and charged with the payment of five pounds yearly from each to their mother during her widowhood. Item I give and devise the remainder of the land with the payment of five pounds yearly from each of them to their mother during her Widowhood. Now it is my will and desire and I do hereby devise and direct that none of the aforesaid limita-tions should be construed or deemed entails of any of the aforesaid lands but that they should be esteemed as contingent remainders & not ther--wise. Now It is my Will and desire that if any of my aforesaid chil-dren should die before they come to the age of twenty one years leaving no children but a wife with child which shall afterwards be born alive, that then his or their child or children born after his or their death or deaths shall succeed to his or their estates in the same man-ner as if born before such death. Now I give and devise to my wife Elizabeth during her life the land I now live on purchased of William Waugh and the use of one seventh part of my slaves and other personal estate which slaves and personal estate after her death I devise shall be equally divided among all my children. This de-vise to my wife to be in lieu of her dower. Now I give and devise all my Lands herein before mentioned and all the residue of my slaves and personal estate except what was before given to my wife in trust to the rev^d. Mr. Richard Brown of Maryland, the rev^d. Mr. John Scott, Mr. James Douglass and Mr. Gathbut Bullitt of Prince William

The last will and testament of Michael Wallace deceased was presented into Court by the Rev. James Scott and Gavin Lawson two of the executors therein named who made oath thereto according to Law and being further proved by the oath of Robert Lawson was admitted to record and the said executors performing what is usually in such cases certificate is granted them for obtaining a probate thereof in due form of Law and acknowledges a bond for the same. Test Jas. Robinson C. K. G. C.

At another Court held for the said County the seventh day of July 1796 the aforesaid original will of Doctor Michael Wallace was produced in Court for the purpose of its being more fully proved, whereupon Travers Daniel Gentleman came into Court and made oath that he was well acquainted with John Moncure one of the subscribing witnesses to the said Will and also with his hand writing & that he was perfectly satisfied & convinced that the signature of the said John Moncure as a witness to said Will was written with his own hand & that he has been dead about thirteen years — said Travers Daniel also made oath that George Noble another of the witnesses to the said Will did live in the Town of Falmouth & has been removed from thence upwards of twenty years. At another Court held for the said County the sixth day of October in the said year 1796 a Codicil of date the sixth day of October 1766 to the aforesaid original Will of Doctor Michael Wallace was produced in Court to be admitted to record whereupon it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the said Codicil was wholly writ by the said Michael Wallace's own hand the same was admitted to record. And at another Court held for the said County the first day of September 1803.

The ~~ap~~ original last will and testament of Doctor Michael Wallace deceased being again produced to the Court and further proved by the oaths of Francis Foushee and John Newton, who declared themselves to be severally well acquainted with the testator for some time before his death - and had often seen him write, to have been wholly written and signed by him - and the hand writings of George Noble and John Dunlap, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto, being also proved by the said John Newton, who declared himself to be well acquainted with the said witnesses, and had often seen them write - and that they departed from this country for the Kingdom of Great Britain some time about the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy one - and have not since been heard of by him - and the hand writing of the above named John Dunlap being more over proved by William Knox, who declared himself to be well acquainted with the said Dunlap and his hand writing - that George Noble and the said John Newton departed from this country to Great Britain before the war - and the said Noble has since died there, and he has heard that the said Dunlap is also dead. The Court being satisfied from the aforesaid proof, that the said Will was wholly written by the testator, it was Ordered that the same be recorded.
