

apc april the 23 - 1709
This is the Last will and testamant of Robert Pollard I leave my Land to my Children every one alike and if any one refuses to Live upon the Land the They are not to sell to no body but so there brothers if otherwise they doe it shall stand to no effect and I have like y^e old gun and my ^{son} John new stock gun and my Richard the Long stime. blacke gun. James the Short stocke gun. and my son Thomas the Short fowling piece and my will that the are not to shew nor carry them away whill they come of age and if sd. boy my wife does not marry she are to stay with her then full yeares and if they have a cross father in Law to bee att age age atts surcon then and for my son John Robert Pollard Darke beay passing mare and my son John old beay mare. and my son James the beay horse and y^e first colt John mare Pringe-shall bee Richard that and y^e next colt that Robert had ^{James} Richard that and the next colt and I leave to my daugh ter Mary new beay the blacke mare and colt and I leave to my son Robert this plantation and to my son John that plantation which James Thoms all y^e Land that Richard Rue down to the Road and as far as the Land will the 23 - 1709

And so my Daughton many newbey all cotes neck for as long as she live and after her Decease Lott it fall to my son Thomas and if my son Robert should dye without heire Lott it fall to John and Likewise if John should dye without heire it shall fall to Robert and if my son Richard should dye without heire to Jane and if James should without heire all that neck shall fall to Thomas and to my son Thomas a fitchen bed and furniture and if my wife should marry for her to have achild pontio and if Estate to be preac and if she should dy before shee marry for y^e Estate shall devide among them us

Robert Pollard / Robert Millin
Mark Mark

John Gnice
her

Abigail A Robeson
Mark