Nich: Seward's
Will

In the name of God Amen I Nicholas Seward of the County of Soudown being at this present time in reasonable health and of perfect and sound memory Blessed be Almighty God for it but calling to mind the uncertainty of this Transitory Life and the certainty of Death knowing that all men must once die and be Judge for their Actions in this present Life do hereby make and Ordain this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following.

First to God I Bequeath my Soul who gave it to me and my Body to be buried in a Christian manner according to the Rules of the Church of England and at the Discretion of my Ex<sup>ors</sup> hoping that at the General Resurrection at the last day they shall be united again and through the Merits of our ever Blessed Redeemer I may thus continue in everlasting Bliss.

And for what worldly Goods it has pleased the Almighty Lord to Endow me with I give and Bequeath in the following manner.

And first of all I desire that all my just Debts be punctually paid and the residue (or remainder of my Estate) I give and Bequeath whole and entire to my well Beloved and Tender Wife Anne Seward to her own Particular use and Behoof to donath, Act and dispose of as she shall think proper but not to have it appraised.
And Lastly I do Constitute her my aforesaid beloved Wife my whole and Sole Ex<sup>or</sup> of this my last Will and Testament.

And I do likewise nominate and appoint my Honoured Father in Law Thomas Sorell and my Trusty and well loved Friend James Hamilton Gent as Trustees of this my said Will and beg and desire them to Assist to manage the Affairs for my aforesaid Beloved Wife.

And I do hereby Overtake and Render Invalid all other Will or Wills either Verbal or Written and do Acknowledge this to be my last Will and Testament.
