Loving Jesus to Heavenly Joy & Peace, But as to my Worldly Estate I Divide on following Conditions Firstly. I give & Bequeath to my loving Wife Elisabeth one Cow which she is to have before any Dividend is made; and also the third part of my whole Real and Personal Estate, - and it is my Will & Request that after my Death altogether my whole Estate Remain undivided and in the Possession of my wife Elisabeth until her Disease and ^{that} she shall have the full Power & Authority for the raising and maintaining my Children and when they come to Age she shall give each an Equal Quantity of household Furniture at her ^{own} Discretion But if - Secondly - in case my wife doth marry and take a second Husband, I give & Bequeath ^{that} my Executors (which are in this Will hereafter Appointed) do take Care of my Children & see that none of the Principal of my Estate which I leave behind me be Waisted and if any part thereof is Waisted, with Knowledge of my Wife she shall make up the Loss To the Children out of her share - Thirdly - my Will and Request is that none of them be bound servants but if they Cannot live with ^{their} Mother they may with the leave of my Executors live at any Creditable House, but if in case my Children should have a Stepfather as hath been before mentioned, I give my Children liberty, & I would not have that they should work for their Stepfather but that they should, live out to others & what they Earn shall be their Own - And I give my Executors Power if my Wife Marries to Divide the Estate and give to each of my Children that are married or of Age their Respective Shares & the Shares of the Younger Children to be put out to use for them until they shall Come of Age but if my wife Remains a Widow she shall have all until her Disease as hath been before mentioned, but after her Death fourthly - it is my Will & I Require that my whole Estate Real & Personal be Equally Divided between my Children namely One Child to have as much as another Except my Eldest Son Adam shall have one shilling
