Johnston Esq
Will &

I George Johnston of Loudoun County, being in good health and understanding, and about to join my Regiment in the American Army now in New York do make this my last Will and Testament, revoking all other Wills heretofore made by me — I give, devise and bequeath unto my brother Archibald Johnston his Heirs and Assigns forever one full half part of the Tract of Land lying in the said County, devised to me by my Uncle Dennis McCarty dec'd; which said Tract I desire & entreat my worthy approved friend Major Leven Corwell to divide as he thinks ~~proper~~ just and reasonable; after which division my said Brother has a right hereby given him and his Heirs to chose whichever half he pleases. The remaining half I desire & entreat my said worthy and approved friend to divide into two equal parts as he thinks just and reasonable, the one I hereby give, devise and bequeath unto my Brother Dennis McCarty Johnston his Heirs and Assigns forever, he or they making Choice. The remainder part I hereby give, devise and bequeath unto my Brother Willm Johnston his Heirs and Assigns forever. I desire and direct that my Houses and Lots in the Town of Sherbourg may be sold by my Executors for the payment of my just Debts after which if there be a ballance I desire it may be laid out by my Executors on the Education of my brother Dennis and Willm; it is my Desire that my personal Estate and Debts due me, ^{payment of the} may be first apply'd to the debts I owe; so that as much of the Money arising from the sale of the Houses and Lots aforesaid may be applied towards the Education of my said two brothers as may be left. All the rest of my real and personal Estate I give, devise and bequeath unto my Brother Archibald and Sister Betty Johnston their Heirs and Assigns ^{nominate} as Tenants in Common. Lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my Brother

Archibald & William Johnston my friend Seven Powell Executors of this my last Will and Testament - In Writhe witnesseth Thierinto sett my Hand & Seal this 27 Day of November 1776
