Seventhly. I give and Devise unto my son William (after his mothers Death) the Plantation whereon I now live to him his heirs & Assigns forever, One feather bed and furniture, the residue of my Silver Spoons, a Shot Gun & my Silver Watch. But upon this express Condition that my said Son make no Charge against me or my Estate for any Work or other thing done for me in my life time & that I intent his Legacy to be a full compensation for all his services also that he pay unto my two Grandsons William Wright & Joseph Thomas the sum of Twenty pounds each upon their arriving to Twenty One years of age - And if my said son shall bring any amount against or my Estate as above mentioned, then my Will is that the Land and other Legacies left him shall be sold and the money equally divided among all my Children or their representatives Eighthly All the residue of my Personal Estate after the Death of my beloved Wife I direct to be sold and the money equally divided between my four Daughters Hannah, Ann, Martha & Elizabeth or in case of either of their Deaths to their legal representatives. But my will is that the share devised to my Daughter Hannah in this Clause shall not immediately be paid to her, but shall be retained in the hands of my Executors and delivered to her in portions as she may stand in need thereof. Should any residue be left at her decease that it shall be divided amongst her three Children Martha, Mary & Joseph in equal proportions.

Lastly I Nominate Constitute and appoint my beloved Wife and my son William Executors of this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all other Will or Wills by me heretofore made declaring this only to be my Will. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my Hand & Seal this Seventeenth day of January in the year of our Lord 1780.

Be it remembered that I Henry Smith of Shelburne parish in Loudoun County Virginia, being of minding good Bodily health, and sound, and disposing mind & memory, blessed be God the author of all Good, to the much, for the same, yet calling to mind the uncertainty of, & troubles attending of us in this life, have thought fit to make & publish this my last Will and Testament, of what kind providence has seen fit to favour my late of Industry with, in the following manner & form, to my tender Offspring for whom, I have often bowed my weak abilities, in secret, that they may come forward in the paths of the just, & be found worthy of the Crown prepared for the Righteous — That is to say I will that all my Just Debts &

Henry Smith's Will —

And funeral Expences be fully paid & discharged as soon as they conveniently can after my decease. Secondly, I give to Alice my beloved Wife (who I wish well) the new end of the dwelling house, in which we now live, & the Bed & with its furniture in which we now lay, & the Case of drawers with other things out of the household furniture as may be suitable to furnish her ^{said new} End comfortably during her widowhood. Thirdly, I give to my Son Samuel the sum of five shilling, to be paid to him by my Executors after my decease, as I have given him a plantation, & I desire him to be free & willing to pay my said Wife, the one equal third part of the profits arising therefrom, during her natural life if she stands in need thereof. Fourthly, I devise to my Son John & his heirs & assigns forever, the plantation on which Benjamin Foster now lives, patented from James Dillon in said County, containing about two hundred & four Acres, paying to my said Wife the one full & equal third part of the rents, issues & profits of the said Land, during her natural life if she stands in need thereof. Fifthly I devise to my Son George & his heirs & assigns forever the one half of the Land I bought of Samuel Pearson laying between the hills in said County to be divided to him in the following manner, (Viz.) two hundred & twenty nine Acres to be taken off, on the East Side, by a dotted line beginning at or so near the north white Oaks Corner as will suit to divide said Land, as to take one half from thence to follow the dotted line, up, as you may see in the plot

Of the whole on the back side hereof, to or within about two rods of the Gum Corner, at the foot of the short hill & so on following the soted line, to equally divide the Bottom ~~land~~ & the hill, & his other six Acres the remainder of his half, to be taken for his meadow ground, out of the South west Corner, as you may see the plot ~~by~~ ^{said} soted line, as aforesaid on the back hereof, paying to my ^{said} Wife the one full & equal third part of the rents issues & profits of the said lands, during the Continuance of her natural life, if she stands in need thereof—Sixthly, I devise to my Son Thomas & his heirs & assigns forever, all the other half of the said lands I bought of Samuel Pearson being two hundred and thirty five Acres, according to the Deed, paying to my said Wife the one full & equal third part of the rents issues, & profits of the said Lands, during the Continuance of her natural life if she stands in need thereof—Seventhly, I give to my Son David & his heirs & assigns during the natural lives of my three Sons, John, William & George, a lease toll, containing one hundred Acres in Shelburne parish, in said County, joining to land of John Russell, John Thomas, Robert White & my other toll, — Eighthly, I give to my Son William & his heirs & assigns, during the natural Lives of my two Sons, Samuel & John, the Lease toll Ince live on, Containing about one hundred & seventy five Acres.

Ninthly, I devise to my two Sons the before mentioned William & David & to their heirs & Assigns forever the piece of land I bought of Daniel Jones, containing one hundred & forty acres or thereabouts in said County Joining to lands of George Bunson & Benjamin Overfite.
 Tenthly, I do order & will that my two Daughters Sarah & Ann shall have one hundred pounds each first going thereto the overplus of monies, after my Debts is paid. (If any there be) & the remainder to be raised out of my moveable Estate; & if said moveables will not raise said two hundred pounds my four first mentioned Sons to wit: Samuel, George, John & Thomas I do will that they do make it up, out of what I have given them, & that the said one hundred pounds each, for my said two Daughters, shall be payable & on demand at the age of twenty one years each, and if there is more moveables that will raise said two hundred Pounds I do will that it be equally divided between said William, David, Sarah & Ann. And I do further will that my two said Daughters shall have liberty from my Executors after the praifement, to take each of them to an equal sum of the Beading & Beads, pottes, dishes &c. at the price then fixt by said praifers if they see fit to do. Eleventhly, I do will that if any one or more of my above named Children, decease without any heir from their Body, that in such a Case, what I have willed to them or any one of them so deceasing to be equally divided amongst my living Children, except William and David who if it so happens & they or either of them live I will that they or either of them shall have a double Share, as most of them is lease land or unimproved. Twelfth. I do will that my wife shall have a suitable haony kept for her, where she resides to go to meetings at her leisure; or else where, and also a Coo to give her milk, at the cost of my Sons, while in her widowhood—Thirteenth. I will that if my aforesaid Son George, appears to keep in a Condition uncapable of getting his living & taking care of what I will to him, I will that my Executors take it into their hands to pursue it for his maintenance during his life, & then be divided as aforesaid if there be no heir from his Body.

Lastly, I constitute & appoint my wife & three Sons to wit, Samuel, John & Thomas Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former and other Wills by me at any time heretofore made and declare this & no other to be my last Will & Testament—Y^e 5th 7th mo. 1782.
