Teste Cha^s Winns Esq

I Vincent Lewis of the parish of Cameron and County of Loudoun being at this time in a good state of Health and sound prevent any manner of contention or dispute that may happen to arise after my decease touching my worldly Estate that it hath pleased God to bestow upon me, I give devise and dispose of the same in the following manner that is to say.

Lewis
Vincent's Will

First As to my eldest Son John Lewis, I having heretofore made over and conveyed to him in Fee simple by deed duly executed and acknowledged a Tract or parcel of Land lying in the parish and County aforesaid containing two Hundred and forty acres bounded and described as in the said Deed expressed together with sundry goods and chattels which he is now lawfully seized and possessed of which said Land Goods & chattels I took upon and adjudge to be as an Equivalent or proportionable part of my Estate in consideration thereof and as a Bar to any further or future claim challenge or demand which the said John Lewis can or may pretend to set up after my decease to the prejudice or disadvantage of my other Children Thereby declare it is my will and desire and do devise and bequeath unto the said John Lewis one Shilling Sterling Money as, and for, his full part share and inheritance of in or to any ^{part} of my Estate of any nature or kind soever and that from every such claim he or his Heirs shall by this my will be forever Excluded and barred to every Intent construction and purpose whatsoever

Secondly as to my Daughter Betty the now wife of Jonathan Davis. I having heretofore given and delivered to her sundry goods and chattles which I also look upon as an Equivolent or proportionable part or share of my Estate and to prevent any further or other claim of her the said Betty or those claiming or to claim under her to any part thereof after my decease I hereby devise and bequeath unto the said Betty one Shilling Sterling as and for her full part share and proportion of my Estate hereby declaring this to be a bar and to exclude her from every further and other part thereof to every Intent and purpose whatsoever

Thirdly, as to my son George Lewis I having ^{heretofore} given and delivered unto him sundry goods and Chattles which I also look upon as a full Equivolent and proportionable part of my Estate and to prevent any further or other claim or demand of him the said George Lewis or his heirs to any part of my Estate after my decease I hereby devise and bequeath unto the said George Lewis one Shilling Sterling as and Equivolent for his full part share and proportion thereof hereby declaring this to be a bar and to exclude him from any further and other part to every intent and purpose whatsoever

But it is not in anywise whatsoever to be extended or construed to effect or prejudice my wife during her natural life or remains my widow to whom I lend the use of all my Estate during that period and if my said wife should afterwards think fit to marry I then desire she shall from the time of such her intermarriage be barred from any concern or acting as an Executor, but from thenceforth to take the provision the Law allows her and that my other Executor take upon him the burthen of the Execution of my will Fifthly as to my son James Lewis I having here tofore made over and conveyed to him in fee by deed duly executed a Tract or parcel of Land lying in the parish and County aforesaid bounded and described as in the said Deed is expressed Together with sundry goods and chattles which he is now quietly seized and possessed of which said said goods and chattles I also look upon and adjudge to be a equivalent or full proportionable part of my Estate in consideration thereof and as a Bar to any further or future claim challenge or demand which the said James Lewis can or may pretend to set up after my decease I hereby declare it is my will and desire and do devise and bequeath unto the said James Lewis one shilling sterling money as and for his full part and proportion to any part of my Estate and that from every such ^{claim} he and his heirs shall by this my will be forever excluded and barred to every intent construction and purpose whatsoever bequeathed and devised I do here by this my will give bequeath and devise it all both real and personal unto my youngest son Charles Lewis and to his heirs forever But with this particular request and it is my will and desire that my wife have the use of it all during her life or widowhood as herein before mentioned and intended
