In obedience to an order of the worshipful Court of Loudoun dated ^{thence} announced me the subscribed ~~me~~ ^{the subscribers} have settled the Estate dec. of George Bunt dec. with Joanna Lewis his Executrix, & have made a division of the same amongst the different claimants, as will appear by the foregoing acc^{ts} & statements. The parties interested thought it advisable to make sale of the whole estate including the slaves as being the most certain way of obtaining its value when each person either by himself or herself as by their Guardians, purchased as he or she chose in making the division. of course, we allotted to each purchaser the slaves by him or her so purchased, and this will account for some of the representations having no slaves allotted to them to whom were assigned bonds for their proportion of the said estate agreeable to their desire
