In Obedience to an Order of Lunenburg Court and hereunto annexed with the Subscribers met at the late dwelling house of John Cooper dead to divide the Estate agreeable to said Order. That as the Estate chiefly consisted of Negroes Slaves and their living Children of the said Cooper it appeared to us that there could be no Division made but by selling the Estate for Cash. Whereupon the delegates and their Guardian Francis Cooper did consent and mutually agree that the said Estate should be publicly sold, which was accordingly done by the Executors to the Will of the said John Cooper as will more fully appear by the Sale returned by said Executors.
