Teste John Brown Esq. Clerk

In the name of God amen I George Duncan of Henric County being well in a long state of health but saved in memory Considering that all must die I therefore give my body to the earth and my soul to god that gave it - Item in the first place I give unto my two sons William and John

I have each of them one feather bed and furniture and each of them a cow and calf when ever they chose to take them and it is my desire that my young wife Mary Lincoln shall have all the rest of my estate during her life both real and personal and at her death I give unto my son John
