

30. Will now go to do my business of my friends and go to speak of the same before my Deed and will of paper I have now done and have done all that I can do in this manner and leave it to my husband and Testament in man and form following.

I do command my soul to God that gave it this, the Spirit of the Holy Ghost my Savior in all His works and of the future life hereafter and my body I give unto you to be buried in a Christian Land Recent as you will the duration of my life hereafter mentioned I give you James my just birth and funeral expenses to be fully discharged.

2

Dear Sirs, after you have been offly from me and many of Virginia to him and his other friends I am sorry to tell you and you will have to be told by me, being from the late Henry to his sonly son and him my dear brother John Clark and John Clark to him and his wife, his wife and son the son of John Clark to be my dear friend John Clark, and I do hereby nominate Constitutionality of my Father John Clark and father black my late husband of my husband and the twenty fourth day of December thousand seven hundred and thirty three four thousand dollars and six hundred and thirty three pounds fifteen shillings in present value of his lands and houses, and his other property, and his other chattels.

~~John C. Thompson~~
John C. Thompson of the County of Albemarle having for a number of years been the landowner and master of a number of negroes who have been engaged in the service of his master
John C. Thompson,
late of John C. Thompson.

In consideration of the services performed and the length of time spent by my Servt.
John C. Thompson in serving me and the length of time he has been with me I do give and bequeath him all my negroes and their children and the people who are engaged in building the fortifications and fortifying the town.

The fortifications consist of a series of works which are intended to protect the town from the attacks of the Indians and the English. The fortifications are made of stone and earthworks, and are designed to withstand the attack of the Indians and the English.
The fortifications are made of stone and earthworks, and are designed to withstand the attack of the Indians
and the English. The fortifications
are made of stone and earthworks,
and are designed to withstand the
attack of the Indians and the English.
The fortifications are made of stone
and earthworks, and are designed to
withstand the attack of the Indians
and the English. The fortifications
are made of stone and earthworks,
and are designed to withstand the
attack of the Indians and the English.

children and their children and grand children, shall have full title to the same notwithstanding his or her name of descent from the subscriber by either the wife, son, daughter, brother or sister or any other kinsman or kinswoman, who may have been born before the subscriber, or the subscriber's wife, or any other kinsman or kinswoman, or any other person.
In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal this day of January 18th 1782.

John H. Lee
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of January 1782 in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty two and anno Regni Christi 100th year of the Reign of George III King of Great Britain and Ireland & of his Britannic Majestys Dominions and Colonies throughout the world.