

72
H. H. H.
11

In the morning I am with the Lumber being at the house, I go out and that lot of lumber being the best of the kind by me and I conclude this night out and I returned home being all my business with that of all I thought my wife to go in the morning the morning being I go to bed and then I go and sign with my son H. H. H.
to the house of land among the plantation where I live and see you and see your son and your son and I am then I go and sign with my son H. H. H.
H. H. H.

been given and signature being on the same Hathall overline

Ann Hand being beloved wife Elizabeth Hathall the Plantation where Ann has during her life and after her decease I give it to my son William Hathall and his heirs forever
Ann Hand being beloved wife Elizabeth Hathall my house during her life and after I give it to my daughter Sarah Hathall Ann Hand being daughter Sarah Hathall and I give it to my son William Hathall and his heirs forever

then this long on certain Thomas White and his wife Sarah White one hundred Acres of land lying between Thomas Cook and John White during their lives — then and after their Decease to their William White the son of the said Thomas White and his heirs forever —

And after my funeral services is paid Monetary be loved wife Elizabeth White the Dowry of my Estate during her life and after her to be Equally Divided between William White and Elizabeth White and William White they being my son and Grandson and I signed my son William White and his wife and sole Executors

many beloved sons engaged in of my Estate during his life and after his death to be Equally Divided between William Hatcher and Robert Hatcher and William Hatcher
being my son and Grandson and I signed my son William Hatcher my Heir and sole Executor of my last Will and Testament on this day last Well and Satisfied on this day that I have hereunto set my hand affixed my seal October 15th 1767

William Hatcher
Robert Hatcher
James Young

his
William Hatcher
Mark

B¹

At a Court held for Mecklenburg County the 10th day of December 1770

Present Will and Testament of William Mitchell deceased was proved by the Oath of the Witnesses Jesse Buchanan and Andrew Lee, Deceased and on the Oath of William Mitchell, Son the Executor thereon. Shewed that said Oak and Pine lands and Acknowledged Bond with License on the last Deeds Certificate is Bound to him for procuring a suitable thing in performance

Test J. P. B. & A.