Alex.r Reads Will.

In the name of God amen I Alexander Reade of the County of Middlesex & Colony of Virginia Gent. being of sound mind & memory do make and ordain this my last Will & Testament in manner & form following. Imprimis. It is my Will and desire that the house and Lotts in the Town of Urbanna which I bought of Samuel Price & the Lotts I purchased of Mr. Wormley as also my Physical Books, Medicens, Shop Utensils be be sold & the money arising therefrom be laid out in the purchase of Lands or negros at the discretion of my Executors, Item. when my outstanding debts & moneys due to me are Collected I devise that this money also may be laid out in the purchase of Land or negros or otherwise at the discretion of my Exors. Item, I give the negro Lucy young Gienge boy Peter & Sam to my beloved wife forever. Item. I give unto my Mother Wm. Eliz.a Foster the sum of Ten pounds Sterling to be paid her annually during her natural Life and also the sum of Thirty pounds to be paid her in as short time after my decease as conveniently may be: but if my loving Wife and mother should agree to live together: then it is my earnest desire that no disbursements of this Kind be made out of my Estate. but my loving Wife Mother and Children may be mutally supported and children educated out of the profits of my Estate. but if it should so happen that my d. Mother & Wife should disagree & seperate then the aforesaid devise & Legacy to stand good, Item

I give & bequeath unto my Son John Reade and his heirs my Houses in the Town of Bedford in Bedfordshire in great Britain Item I give unto my apprentice John Davide Ten pounds as a reward for his faithful service. Item. It is my Will & devise that the Land I bought of John Daniel & Cole. Lewis Burwell and all other my Estate both real & personal (including the negroes above devised to my Wife and those which by Deed of Gift I have conveyed to my Sons as also the Land or Negroes to be purchased by my Exrs as above directed) be kept together for the mutual benefit and advantage of my Wife & Children during her widowhood or 'til such time as my Son John arrives to his age of Twenty one years & when my said Son arrives to the aforesaid age or in case my Wife should Marry (which ever should first happen) and then it is my Will that a Division of my Estate be made in the following manner that is to say after taking out the Negroes above devised to my Wife & those conveyed to my two Sons. I give one third part of the Remainder to my Wife from Life & the other two thirds to my Sons John & Charles & their heirs equally to be devided & after my Wifes decease I give her third part to my s.d Sons & their heirs equally devided & but in case my Wife should depart this Life without marrying and before my Son John attains his full age

Item I give & bequeath all my s.d Estate to my s.d Sons John & Charles their heirs forever equally to be devided Item I desire that my Sons may be sent to the College and Continued
there as long as their Guardians shall see fit or the Cir= =cumstencies of my Estate permit; but it is my request that they be brought up to such Professions as are most suitable to their Genius and Inclination Lastly I constitute and appoint Ralph Wormley and Christopher Robinson Esq.rs and Majr. Francis Tomkies Executors of this my last Will & Testament & Guardians to my s.d Sons hereby impowering them & the survivors or survivor of them to sell and Convey the Houses Lotts &c above directed to be sold & make a good Title thereto according to the true intent & meaning of this my Will & I also ordain Mess.rs Taylor & Thorn=
