IN Obedience to an Order of Middlebury County Court bearing date the 27th day of Nov. 1780, We the Subscribers appointed in the said Order to Divide the Estate of Sodomick Jones Dec^d. Agreeable to his Will, Met at the House of M^r. Lucy Jones & first proceeded to lay off & Allot to the said Lucy Jones her Dower in the Land of the said Sodomick Jones Dec^d. as follows, to wit, Beginning at a large Hickory by the road side in the line of Col^o. Corbin the land he purchased of Parrott, Thence along a line of Marked Trees near a fence to a large White Oak on the North side of a Branch, thence along & up the said Branch to a Black Walnut Tree, thence through a piece of Woods, along a line of Marked Trees to another line of Col^o. Corbin in the Half Quarter Tract thence bounded by the said Corbin's line to the Beginning. We then Allotted to the said Lucy Jones, Fanny & young George, which was appraised in the Year 1777 to Eighty Pounds in line of M^r. & S^r. Wilson which was appraised in the same Year, to Twenty two Pounds, and sold for the payment of the s^d. Testator's Debts, the said Lucy ^{Jones accounting} with the Heir at Law for eight Pounds, which said £8. and £5. 10. for a silver Watch, the said Lucy Jones kept, We deducted from £22.5, fifteen Shillings Cash, that appeared to us to have been rec^d by the s^d. Sodomick Jones towards the payment of the s^d. Jones's Debts and which was part of the Estate rec^d. by the said Sodomick Jones with his said Wife, And the Balance of £212. 5. we rated in Tob^o. & 19th of Oct. & then turned the said Tob^o. into Cash, at the Rate last settled by the Grand Jury to wit 60th of Oct. by which it appears that the sum of £13406. 4. is due to the s^d. Lucy Jones from the s^d. Estate. We then allotted to the s^d. Lucy Jones as her thirds in the residue of the s^d. Sodomick Jones's Negroes, James & George valued at £135. which exceeded her proportion the sum of £12. 10 that sum being settled in the manner the other Money was settled, after deducting one third therefrom, amounting to £500. which is to be taken from the above £13406. 4. The next day we met again & proposed the s^d. Lucy Jones with four Cows & one Yearling of Cows which said Cattle exceeded her proportion £153. 8 in line thereof we allotted to the Heir at Law the Plough Horses valued at £600. which after deducting two thirds therefrom left a Balance due to Lucy Jones of £16. 13. 4. which Balance the said Lucy Jones agreed to give up to the Heir at Law, on his giving up to her some new Hides. We also allotted to Lucy Jones 1 of the best Sheep, & with consent of the Heir at Law all the Stock of Hogs except two Breeding Sows.

In the Name of God. So be it. I James Mills of Middlesex County, being at this time (praised be God) of sound mind, do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills made by me.

First. I freely resign and recommend my Soul to Almighty God, in hopes of his gracious acceptance and pardon of my sins through the merits of my Redeemed Jesus Christ.

I desire my Body to be as privately interred as possible, and as I always thought it a matter of Indifference where it rested, to prevent trouble let it be deposited in the most convenient Church Yard to the place to which I shall depart this life, or otherwise to the Chaise of my

Dear Wife, paying the Parson the same as of a Funeral Sermon, (I mean ten pounds good money.)
I desire all my just debts to be discharged as soon as possible after demanded in the most honourable manner and according to strict justice.

As to the Worldly goods it has pleased Almighty God to bestow on me I bequeath in manner following Viz!

I give to my Dear Beloved Wife to dispose of as she may think proper, with any future increase Viz! Old Betty, Sukey her Daughter, Johnny Sukey's Son, Molly and Nancy Sukey's daughters, Jane, Billy and Samie Jane's Son, Sally and Betsy Jane's Daughter, Phanie, Andrew Nancy and Johnny Sally's Children, Lidia, Baldy, Agga, Paddy and Robin, Lidia's Children, Abba, Phillis and Nelly Abba's Children, and as Dick may not be separated from his Wife and Children and Nanny from her Son and Grand-Children, I also give them in Fee simple to my Beloved Wife, I likewise give her Little Wife and should esteem it a favour done my Memory that she would give him a bottle of Rum or brandy every Saturday morning as long as he continues to deserve it and if he survives her I hope she will recommend him to be used kindly and have the same allowance during life.

I likewise lend to my Beloved Wife during her natural life all my Lands Lots and houses whatsoever together with all the Slaves belonging to me and not before mentioned with their increase, with full leave to dispose of any that prove refractory or disobedient replacing others in their room

I also lend her during her natural Life all the Residue of my personal estate whatever, such as Plate, household and kitchen furniture, Chariot and Chaise, ^{Horses} mares, Cattle and their increase, Cattle and Sheep with their increase, Cart and Waggon and all the plantation materials together with the Liquors and stores that may happen to be in the house at the time of my decease, also all the Corn Tallow or other provisions of any kind on the Estate, without being accountable for what she may use, Ware and Tools or destroy'd by accident, otherwise than leaving what is on ~~and~~ belonging to the Estate, meaning also any additions of such Articles to be quietly deliver'd up to my Surviving Executors to be disposed off as hereafter directed.

And as the occasion of Revoking all former Wills and now making this was purely to do Justice to so great merit and providing amply for my said Beloved Wife, in order thereto, as the Principle part of my Fortune consists chiefly of Bonds Mortgages and Debts, almost the whole bearing Interest, and which our unhappy times have rendered very precarious, tho' I am in great hopes that the Buth of them are in such hands as will act with strict honour and Justice, therefore after securing sufficient to discharge my just debts and to remit Fifty pounds Sterling & Annuum to my Sister Ann Butcher during her natural Life, tho' said remittance not to be provided for longer than my said Beloved Wife's life time, for in case my Sister survives my Wife, provision will be hereafter made, the burdens above mentioned with a Commission of Seven One half of £l. to my Executors M^{rs} William Graham Overton Cosby and James Gregorie (or such of them as acts) for their trouble in collecting and securing these debts in the best manner they can, being all that is to be deducted from the whole amount. One half of the whole remains, I GIVE to my said Beloved Wife to dispose of as She thinks proper, together with the Interest due and arising upon the same, and as no doubt She will have occasion for many necessary and immediate supplies from time to time, She is to be furnished with any part that may be collected first, for which reason my Stephen John Mills to whom I shall give the bulk of the remains is not to have a right to demand any part of it till my Wife's Decease without her leave and direction.

Should my Sister Ann Butcher survive my Beloved Wife, from the remaining part of my monied Estate I GIVE her five hundred pounds Sterling, or thirty pounds Sterling & Annuum during her natural life, the choice to be at my & Stephen's option, but that sum of five hundred pounds is to be detained till he gives sufficient security to my surviving Executor for the punctual Annual payment.

I give to Elizabeth Mills Three hundred pounds Sterling and hope my Beloved Wife will make up my deficiency, to be paid when it suits my Wife.

Whereas I became security for my Stephen John Mills for two Considerable Sums, One to M^r Abraham Barnes's Estate the other to the Rev^d M^r Alexander Cadden for his Negroes I sold and delivered him, in case my Estate should have been called on for these Sums, then such amount is to be deducted from the Remains of my monied Estate all of which I hereby give to him, but then he is to have Negro Tom on the Estate lent my Wife delivered him, And yet notwithstanding I have gone as far as Justice and my own Inclinations would permit, to provide amply for my my Beloved Wife, I am afraid it will be insufficient and vastly short of what She merits from me for the great attention, Regard, and Affection I have ever experienced from her real goodness of Heart. That part of my Estate lent my Wife, at her decease I desire may be sold and the following Legacies paid out of it Viz!

To M^{rs} Elizabeth Corrie One hundred pounds and a pair of the best Stay's

To Elizabeth Mills Three hundred pounds.

To M^{rs} Lucy Northam Two hundred pounds, for her great assiduous and good natured attention to me.

To M^{rs} Maria Beverley Five hundred pounds, These four Legacies to be paid in the Currency of Gold and Silver or the Value, The remains after my Surviving Executors deducting their Commissions I GIVE to my Dear Friend Robert Beverley as a reward in remembrance of my great Affection for, and regard due to the memory of my Beloved Wife and her very Excellent Parents, as of his own real merit and my affection for his whole Family, but in case my Friend would rather keep the Estate (which I think more eligible) it would be most convenient for any plan he brought up to Texas especially as this summer that we would plenipotentiary satisfy all the Legacies) he would only further to satisfy my Executors their Commission, and the whole be delivered up to him.

Lastly I constitute and appoint my beloved Wife, M^{rs}. William Graham, M^{rs}. Christian Cosby and M^{rs}. James Gregorie Executors of this my last Will and Testament, to M^{rs}. Cosby I give my Gold Watch, and hope it will be his Companion as long as it has been mine 13 or 14 Years. This being all made with my own hand and Seal'd with my own Seal, this third day of May, in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty one requires no further Witness.

I do give and approve what may be made on Signed, sealed & delivered to be the last will & Testament

A Codicil to the last Will & Testament of James Mills Gent.

I do direct the following legacies to be paid out of the debts due to me (vizt?)

To Miss Elizabeth Mills Fraser two hundred pounds, being an addition to a former Two hundred, amounting in the whole to Four hundred Pounds ^{st.}

To Miss Lucy Northam Two hundred Pounds Currency.

To Miss Maria Bowley Five hundred Pounds Currency.

Three four Legacies to be paid in Gold or Silver or the value thereof.

And whereas I have reflected that my Nephew Mr John Mills is advanced into life of a tender constitution, and may possibly not survive my Wife, I do therefore deem and deem that as soon as my Executors have collected and paid to my Wife the Proportions which I have bequeathed her of my Estate, that they shall as speedily as possible Pay to my Nephew John Mills the Legacy I have left him.

And whereas it is Probable it would be more agreeable to my friend Robert Beverly Esq^r to keep possession of the Estate which I have lent my Wife during her Natural life, I do therefore give and bequeath to him and his Heirs forever all the Estate lent my Wife consisting of Lands, Tithes, Stocks, and furniture &c. after her decease.

And I do revoke & disannul the legacy given in the body of my Will to my Sister Anne, Batchelor of six hundred pounds Sterling, and do direct my Wife to pay an annuity of Fifty Pounds Sterling, and if my said Sister should survive my said Wife, then I do subject the Estate above devised to Robert Beverley Esquire to the like annuity of Fifty Pounds Sterling: My intention is that my sister should during her life always receive an annuity of fifty Pounds Sterling, but from my Wife & after her decease from M^{rs} ~~xxxx~~ Beverley; This Annuity to commence within one Month after my death.

And whereas the distractions of the Present times may possibly prevent or retard the arrival of Mr. Guegrie, or Mr. Graham, and accidents may obstruct Mr. Cosby in the execution of my Will, I do therefore appoint my Nephew Mr. John Mills & Mr. James Peep accusers jointly on the the former appointed Gentlemen, accusers of this my last Will & Testament, but I do desire that Mr. John Mills does not receive any commission for his trouble in the Execution, he being a Legatee.

It is my intention that the legacy to Miss Elizabeth Miller Faxon shall amount to ~~ten~~ ^{four} hundred pounds sterling. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed my seal, this Twenty Fourth day of September One thousand, seven hundred & Eighty One.

In the Name of God Amen, I William Petus of the County of Middlesex and Parish of Christ Church, being Sick and Weak in body, but in Perfect and Sound Memory do make and Ordain this to be my last Will and Testament in manner and form following first, I give and bequeath unto my Mother, Lucy Petus, if living at my decease one Cow that gives milk, to her and her heirs forever —

Item I lend unto my loving Wife Nancy Petus, all my whole Estate, both Real and Personal, during her Natural life (including the Cow I have Given my Mother if she should not live to Receive it) and After the decease of my aforesaid Wife, I give the same of my Estate, both Real and Personal, unto Mary Dunge Daughter of my Wife but in case she said Mary Dunge should die without heirs of her Body then I give all my Estate, both Real and Personal as above mentioned unto James Petus to him and his heirs forever —

Lastly, I do constitute and appoint My Loving Wife Nancy and John Dunge Executors of this my last Will and Testament, and my desire is, that my Estate may not be appraised, as Witness my hand and seal this Eighth day of January in the Year of Our Lord, one thousand seven hundred Eighty & two
