In the name of God Amen. I Wilkinson Barzey of the Town of Urbanna in the Parish of Christ Church, and County of Middlesex, Virginia. Being sick and weak, but of perfect sence and memory, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all and every Will and Wills by me at any time heretofore made, declaring this to be my only last Will and Testament. Imprimis, It is my desire that all my just debts (which are but few) may be paid, by the sale of such part of my personal Estate as may be deemed least useful to my Wife.

I lend to my beloved Wife Mary Anne Barzey, for and during the term of her natural life, the use of my houses and lot in Urbanna, with all the appertenances thereunto belonging, or in any wise appertaining, also my household and kitchen furniture, Cows and Calves, and of my negro Woman Fanny, but apprehending from the disposition of Ann Lewis (who being her daughter, she will naturally take into the Use houses) that her domestick happiness may be doubled, it is my Will and desire, and I earnestly request my Executors, in case of any ill treatment, in their opinion, of my said Wife, by her said daughter, to turn the said Anne Lewis out of doors, or act in any other manner they may think most conducive to the peace and quiet of my said Wife, and I do hereby vest them with full power and authority to carry this Clause of my said Will into execution, notwithstanding any thing that may have preceded it.

The money due on a Note of Mr George B. Davis's together with any other monies, that may at my death, or any time thereafter, come into the hands of my Executors, shall (after the payment of my debts as aforesaid) remain in their possession, and from time to time, be paid by them to my beloved Wife, in such manner, and in such proportion as is hereafter directed, that is to say the sum of Eight pounds is to be paid her in three months after my death & the same sum to be paid her annually as long as she lives, or as long as any money is in the hands of my Executors I give to my friend James Rose the Calleau de chase that was my brother James's, and that after the death of my Wife, at my request that he take my Negro Woman Jo into his possession, and either set her free, or otherwise dispose of her as he may think proper.

It is further my desire that after death of my beloved Wife, my houses and lot and all and every part of my personal Estate may be sold, and the money arising from such sale, together with any monies that may then be in the hands of my Executors. I give and bequeath to my Sister Sarah Parminter of Biddeford, in the County of Devonshire, and Kingdom of Great Britain (should she be alive at my Wifes death) and to her two daughters, whose names I do not know, but also, it appears by a letter recvd from her dated the 6th day of August 1791 were then living with her, which said money is to be divided equally among them, or the survivors of them and their heirs, share and share alike.

Lastly I constitute and appoint my friends Overton Cosby and James Ross Executors of this my last Will and Testament.
