In the name of God Amen, I James Kidd of Middlebury County in perfect sense & memory do make & declare this my last Will & Testament hereby revoking & making ^{null} void, all & every other last Will & Testament by me heretofore made

Imprimis I devise & bequeath to my son Benjamin Kidd & his heirs forever that half or part of my chagon Tract of Land purchased of M^r. Loomer which joins the lands of Col^d. John George, the Rev^d. Samuel Hays & Samuel Brooks, & ascertained by a dividing line of marked Trees lately made & chopped off by me, beginning at a white Oak adjoining the Rev^d. Samuel Hays land, running as a straight line or course through to Samuel Brooks land; I also bequeath to my son Benjamin & his heirs a negro boy named Sam Item I devise & bequeath to my son William Norman Kidd & his heirs forever the other half or part of my chagon Tract of Land purchased of M^r. Loomer, which joins the lands of the Rev^d. Samuel Hays & M^r. Chamberlaine Blakey & which is ascertained & divided from my son Benjamin's land above given him by the same line of marked Trees lately made & chopped off by me as above mentioned beginning at a white Oak adjoining the Rev^d. M^r. Hays land & running in a straight line or course through to Samuel Brooks Land; I also bequeath to my son William & his heirs a negro boy named Doctor, but if my son William shall die before he arrive to the age of twenty one years without a child living at his death, then my will & devise is that the whole of the Estate which I have given ^{or may give} him in by this my Will, shall be equally divided amongst my other Children or their legal representatives to them & their heirs forever.

Item I devise & bequeath to my son James Kidd & his heirs forever the Tract of Land whereon he now lives, which I purchased of John Daniel as also the Tract of Land I purchased of John Berry adjoining the aforesaid land I purchased of John Daniel, except eight or ten Aers lying beyond the Swamp in which my plant patch is, which joins the lands of Abbotts orphans; & which eight or ten Aers of Land I intended to give to my son John Kidd for support in labor of the Tract of Land which I shall give him; I also bequeath to my son James Kidd & his heirs a negro boy named Sam

Item I devise & bequeath to my son Thomas Kidd & his heirs forever. My estate & house in the Town of Lebanon which I purchased of Trager, I also bequeath to my son Thomas & his heirs a negro girl named Lucy with her furniture & apparel.
But if my son Thomas shall die before he arrive to the age of twenty one years without a child living at his death, then my will & devise is that the whole of the Estate which I have given him or may give him in & by this my Will, shall equally divided amongst my other Children or their representatives to them or their heirs forever.

Item I devise & bequeath to my son John all that which he has for ever the tract of Land & plantation on which I live except the seventy five acres of Land which I purchased of William Berry, which I intend to also give to my Daughter Jane Cuttonden my son James I devise also to my son John which he has for ever a small parcel of Land lying over or beyond the swamp on which the plant patch now is joining the lands of Abbot's orphan, being about eight or ten acres as excepted out of the land given to my son James; I also bequeath to my son John which he has a negro boy named Manservant: but if my son John shall die before he comes to the age of twenty one years or without a Child living at his death, then my will & desire is that the whole of the Estate which I have given or may give him in & by this my Will shall be equally divided amongst my other Children or their legal representatives to them or their heirs forever.

Item I give & bequeath to my son William one hundred pounds to be used therefor support & maintain in a comfortable manner my son George Kidd during his life, and if my son William will not accept or receive the said hundred pounds upon such consideration, my will & desire is ^{then} immediately after my death one hundred pounds shall be put out to interest by my Executors for the support & maintenance of my said son George for his life; I bequeath also to my son George one feather Bed bedstead & furniture for his life, & after his death my will & desire is that the said Bed bedstead & furniture & the one hundred pounds aforesaid if put out to interest & not accepted & received by my son William shall be equally divided amongst my other Children or their ^{legal} representatives to them or their heirs forever.

Item I lend unto my Daughter Jane Cuttonden seventy five acres of Land which I purchased of William Berry joining the Land & plantation I now live on, & she to have the sole use of it as a home, & to work as she chooses till her husband Thomas Cuttonden shall return to live with her, and if her said husband should return at any time hereafter to live with her, by or which he should loose the use & move off the said
