 being very sick of body but of sound mind and disposing memory; Cautious to mind the mortality of my body and the certainty of death, do make this my last last will and Testament in manner and form following (which is to say) First I bequeath my body to the ground from whence I came and my soul to God who gave it nothing doubting, but that the merits of my Lord Jesus Christ I shall have a glorious resurrection at the morning of the great day and as touching all my worldly goods whithersoever I please I give to bless me with I do give as followeth.

Item I give and bequeath unto my son William George all my Estate both real and personal to him and his Heirs for ever consisting of all my land houses stock of cattle Hogs Poultry and Cattle furniture of what kind so ever with my plate Jewels as appraised;

Item my desire and request is that he may or shall take dear of my beloved and affectionate wife Elizabeth George during his natural life or widowhood in and from my Estate above mentioned bequeathed as above to my son William George. Lastly I nominate and appoint my son William George sole Executor of this my last will and testament and that he shall not give bond in Court for the performance of of the the same, as witness whereof I do hereby acknowledge it to any part thereof, be applied to the maintenance & Education of my Daughter Betsy M. Jones, provided the Interest accruing on the Estate she bears from her Father be not sufficient, this to be discretely with the Guardian that I shall hereafter appoint My desire is that Mr. Haige Davis be Guardian to my daughter Betsy M. Jones, & I do hereby appoint ^{him} a Sur - Lastly I constitute and appoint my friend George Davis and my Brother Stapleton Davis Executors to this my last will In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fourth day of February 1794

This 4th day of February 1795, Came Elizabeth Wake before me of the Magistratus for the County of Middlesex, and made oath, that the three Wares, 4 flag Chairs, 4 to me of Laps, and some China mentioned in the Inventory, and appraisement of the Estate of Ambrose Wake; were her Husbands, and appraised as the Estate of Ambrose Wake, in order to save them from being taken by the Sheriff, to satisfy the County, and that the said property as aforesaid were Incontroverted in his appraisement, & sold by his Adm-istrator. The Cart also mentioned in the appraisement of Ambrose Wake, was rotten & her Father had it burnt, in the absence of the Court that Rob^t Wake & Christopher Wake broke open a Chest of Tools, and took all of them away & that Johnston Wake brought a Chest of Tools & a Chest of Goods and had them appraised the Estate of Ambrose Wake in Order to prevent their being taken to satisfy the Commonweal and that some time after a truce had taken place, he claimed them as his own, he also had a faying pan & lance that were appraised Ambrose Wake's. That Christopher Wake had the Chest of Lumber & the set of silver Buckles, mentioned in Ambrose Wake's appraisement and that they were taken in the Adm^{ts} as above she further saith that the Chest of cloth is have been divided — Given under my Hand the day and date within mentioned —
