

John Larkie
J^r Smith

Signed

At a Court held for Middlesex County the 7th day of March 1726

This will of the justly deceased was produced in Court by William Owen Executor there named who made oath thereunto and the same was further proved in Court by the oaths of John Larkie and Joseph Smith his witnesses to it and admitted to record Test W^m Howard Clerk

George
Wick

In the name of God Amen I David George in the County of Middlesex and Parish of St. Martin in Virginia being sick and weak though in perfect sense and memory and for what worldly goods it hath pleased Almighty God to bestow upon me I give and bequeath as followeth

I give my body to the earth from whence it came receive a decent and Christian Buriall and my soul into the hands of Almighty God hoping at the last day to receive a general resurrection

Item I give and bequeath unto my son John George all my land and plantation that I am now possessed with to him and his heirs forever

Item I give all my Negroes to be equally divided between my three sons namely my son John to have two thirds of the value of the Negroes then living and James

Item I give unto my son Harry my gun that I use to hunt with

Item I give unto my son James one Armbale which I use in my house

Item I give unto my daughter Anne for her dowry a silver chain and a pair of have of my estate by reason of his death I give all my personal estate & chattels to be equally divided among my three sons John, Mary and James George

Let it be appointed my three sons as aforesaid John, Mary and James my whole sole Executors of this my last will and testament, reckoning against them what so ever but hereunto I have set my hand and Seal this 21st day of November 1723 Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of the witnesses on the other side David George

Witnesses Joseph Hardce
John Seager
Robt. Brown

At a Court held for Middlesex County the 7th day of March 1724
This will of David George deceased was presented in Court by John George one of the Executors therein named who made oath that he is and the D^y Will was proved in Court by the Oaths of John Seager & Robt. Brown to of the witnesses to it and Committed to record Test W. Stanard Clerk

A true and perfect Inventory of all the goods chattels and credits belonging to the Estate of M^r John Price deceased yet come to hand

1 Servant man named David Wilson

1 Molah Serv't boy named Wil Whistler

2 on 21st 1st 1st

13 Chests Several Sigs 25 Sealers 3 Lathes

1 Cradle 1 Horse stool 1 Warming pan