Will

Examined

In the name of God, Amen, I William Preston of Jefferson County and State of Kentucky (but at present in the State of Virginia being of sound mind being of sound mind but in critical health do make this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former wills

First. It is my will and desire that my Just debts be paid and if there due me are insufficient that my executors sell my Lots improved or unimproved in Prestons enlargement adjoining Louisville or so many thereof as they may deem proper to cover the purpose upon such credit as they may deem proper or the exigencies of my estate will admit of Secondly. I will and direct that my Executors also sell as many more of improved or unimproved Lots in said enlargement or those hereafter laid off adjoining thereto on a credit of three or four years, as will raise the sum of six thousand Dollars, which are to be appropriated to the education of my two sons Hancock And William K Preston under the direction of my executors but in case either shall die before he shall arrive at lawful age, the unexpended balance shall go to the other for the purposes aforesaid and in case of the death of both the balance shall be divided among my Daughters equally.

Thirdly. I direct that my executors continue to lay off Lots adjoining Prestons enlargement to the extent of my eastern bond any conformably to the original intention of the same and a verbal agreement with my Brother Francis who is to extend his on to main and market streets, which said Lots to lay off and not disposed of as above directed or as many thereof as may be necessary, thereby authorizing my Executors to sell and convey for the purpose of raising funds as an auxiliary support for my family should the other funds be insufficient, and in the event of my death the sale of my Bonds expressed. It is my wish and will that it descend to all my children, Lewis, Kunilla, Maria Caroline, Josephine, Hancock William, and Susanna. agreeably to the Law regulating the course of Descents in the state of Virginia, except the following tracts of land, two in the state of Indiana the one near Charleston the other near Porto Mills four tracts in the state of Virginia two, one on Pocahontico tract Henrico County, one on Piney River Hills County, one on Big Savannah in Monroe County and the other on the Muddy fork of Bluestone Fargwell County all which I direct to be sold on such credit as may be thought proper by my executors and the money arising therefore to go to the support of my family, and as to my personal property I request and will that it of every description remain in possession of my wife to be managed by her as she pleases for the Benefit of my family on such Plantation as she may select agreeably to Law to live on but such part thereof to be given to my children as they come of age or are married as she with the concurrence of one of my executors may deem proper having the fullest confidence in her discretion and Justice—My beloved wife will here readily perceive that it is my intention she should if she please take the thirds of my Estate agreeably to Law instead of providing a fee simple estate to her which has been my intention heretofore by her fathers dying intestate she will be entitled to such share of her fathers estate which with what she may think necessary to take of mine will be amply sufficient for a genteel support under her management, I have deemed this apology proper to be made to my beloved wife to which I will add I have the strongest and most undiminished affection for her.

Fourthly, after my wife shall have selected her place of residence, it is my wish the family remain with her until in the event that Mr Hancock the mother of my wife should be so situated that I direct that my sons ^{shall} be removed under the direction of my

Firstly. In all sales of lands or lots which I have made heretofore or may make hereafter or have directed others to make I hereby authorize my executors to make title thereof to the purchasers in as full and complete a manner as if I were living and to make such transfers or conveyances as may be deemed necessary to my Brother Francis, and to him for the division of land called the Brian patch adjoining Louisville and all the lots laid off thereon agreeably to an agreement between my said brother and myself he on his part performing the same duty so as to conform each other in all their rights and the persons who have become purchasers of Lots &c

And I do hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife Caroline my Executrix and my friends James A. Pierce, Dennis Fitzhugh both of Jefferson County, Joseph Cable Breckenridge of Lexington all of the state of Kentucky, Garrett Peyton of Wayne County and James McDowell Sen of Rockbridge County and state of Virginia executors for the purpose of carrying into effect this my last will and Testament. A Corrobor to the last will and Testament of William Preston of the state of Kentucky dated the third day of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty one, I William Preston being of sound ^{mind} and memory do make hereby an attestation to the will before mentioned as followeth

First. I direct that my Executors named in the will aforesaid divide my estate to my children as the Will directs and that the same shall be made by lottery as soon as they shall be of age and by this course it will be made

These intended for my children understanding always that as soon as an appropriation by lot is made that it is final as to that legatee

2^d The division of my estate may be made by the agreement of any three of my executors and as it is not the intention of the Testator to impose unnecessary trouble on his friends a division of the estate is not to be made unless there be palpable inequality in their opinions in the first division.

3^d It is my wish and will that the legatees shall not know their shares of my estate before they are capable in law of inheriting or are so by marriage and that the family be raised out of the estate generally. In witness whereof I have herewith subscribed my name in my own proper hand this fourteenth day of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

George Vineyard came into court Tazewell O. Henshaw following deposition first being duly sworn his will according to law; about eight or ten days before the last Christmas. David Henshaw in the house of the said George Vineyard, then lying in his bed, labouring under his last illness, was asked by the said George Vineyard, how he intended to dispose of his effects in case he did not survive his illness. He answered after his just debts were paid he wished his brother Jacob to enjoy them, and at three different times during his illness, he repeated the declaration, that he wished his brother Jacob to inherit all his property after his just debts were paid, the house of the said Vineyard was the house of the said Henshaw.
Samuel Barnes being also sworn deponent and saith that that one and the same thinks twice he was present at the bed wherein the said David Henshaw lay during his last illness in the house of George Vineyard in the County of Montgomery where he heard him say, that his brother Jacob should enjoy all his property if he died then, after all his just debts were paid these declarations were made eight or ten days before the last Christmas. The house of the said George Vineyard was his home and had been such three years previous to his death, which took place about ten days after the aforesaid declaration was made.
