 testament in manner and form following

I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Sarah Hudson and likewise my youngest son Isaac Hudson equally between them all my personal property to be disposed of as they shall see proper. I also devise all my real estate unto my above named son Isaac Hudson and his heirs forever and I order that the said Isaac Hudson shall pay out of the estate devised to him unto my son Thomas Hudson One Good Horse when required by him and likewise two hundred Dollars in two yearly instalments. I likewise order that my above named son Isaac Hudson shall pay out of the estate devised to him unto my three daughters Sarah Hudson Ailsa Hudson and Mary Hudson three hundred Dollars each exclusive of a horse of common value to each and a Good Saddle to each of my two above named youngest daughters. The money I order to be paid in One hundred Dollars yearly instalments beginning at my first daughter above named until all is paid.
The two hundred dollars first named to be paid to my son Thomas Hudson. I wish it to be understood is to be first paid and then my daughters payments to follow as is before named. As to my eldest son George Hudson I consider I have before named legacies. And I do
