

In the name of God, Amen, I Ann Scott of the State of Virginia, County of Nansemond, do make this my last will and testament revoking all others.

(1) I wish to be buried in a decent manner.

(2) I wish all of my just debts to be paid.

(3) I give and bequeath to Freeman Scott, my son the sum of five dollars, to be paid in just and lawful money.

(4) I give and bequeath to Mattie Jones, my daughter, the sum of five dollars to be paid in just and lawful money.

(5) I give unto Sallie Threath, Francis Gregory, and Annie Scott, my daughters, the remainder of my estate, both real and personal, and of every description, to them and their heirs forever

(6) If my daughter, Annie Scott dies without issue, then her share is to be equally divided between my daughters, Sallie Threath and Francis Gregory.

(7) I appoint my daughter, Annie Scott my executrix and respectfully request the Court not to require of her any surety.

Given under my hand and seal this the 20th day of June, Nineteen hundred and eight.

Annie Scott (her x) (SEAL).

We in the presence of each other and in her presence saw her affix her name to the above.

: Wm. H. Byrd.

Witnesses: Henry Reid.

VIRGINIA:

In the Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the County of Nansemond on Saturday the 20th day of November, 1909.

The last will and testament of Annie Scott, late of this County, deceased, was this day produced before the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County and proved according to law by the oaths of William H. Byrd and Henry Reid, the two subscribing witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded.

And on the motion of Annie Scott, who is named in the said last will and testament as the executrix of the estate of said Annie Scott, deceased, who made oath according to law and entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Five Hundred Dollars, conditioned according to law, (but without security, the said last will and testament directing that no security be required of her) certificate is granted her, the said Annie Scott, as executrix, for obtaining a probate of said last will and testament in due form.

And it is ordered that said bond be recorded.

Teste:

R. R. Smith, Clerk.
