

I, Cornelius deWitt, of the City of Norfolk, State of Virginia, revoking all other wills heretofore made by me, do declare and publish this as and for my last will and testament:

1st. I wish my just debts to be paid.

2nd. All the rest and residue of my property, real, personal and mixed, of every kind and description, I give, bequeath and devise absolutely to my wife, Cecile Amelie deWitt, to do with as she may please.

3rd. I appoint my said wife the executrix of this my will, and request that she may be allowed to qualify as the executrix of this my will without giving any surety, and also that there shall be no inventory and no appraisement of my estate.

Written wholly with my own hand, and signed and sealed by me, this the second day of December in the year Nineteen hundred and four.

Cornelius deWitt (SEAL).

Virginia:

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Princess Anne County, on the 11th day of October, 1913:

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Cornelius deWitt (late of this County), deceased, was this day produced in said Clerk's Office by Cecile Amelie deWitt, the executrix therein named, and offered for probate, and there being no subscribing witnesses thereto, J.P. Andre Mottu and Walter L. Remm were sworn and severally testified that they were well acquainted with the handwriting of the said Cornelius deWitt, and verily believe the said paper writing and the name thereto subscribed to have been wholly written by his own hand; Whereupon, it is considered that the said paper writing is duly and fully proved, and it is ordered that the same be recorded as the true last will and testament of the said Cornelius deWitt, deceased.

And on motion of said Cecile Amelie deWitt, Executrix as aforesaid, who took the oath required by law and entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00), conditioned and payable according to law, without surety, the said will directing that none should be required (and nothing appearing to require the same), certificate is granted the said Executrix for obtaining a probate of said Will in due form.

And said bond is ordered to be recorded.
