Will of Edward W.
Fase.

I, Edward W. Fase, of Norfolk, Virginia, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, knowing the uncertainty of life, do hereby make, publish and declare this as my last will and testament, revoking any and all wills previously made by me.

First. I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid by my Executors hereafter named as soon as convenient after my death.

Second. I hereby give and bequeath all of my property wheresoever situated, real, personal or mixed to my dear wife Elizabeth W. Fase absolutely, to do with as she wishes.

Third. I desire that no inventory be made of my estate.

Fourth. I hereby appoint Elizabeth W. Fase, my wife, and George S. Fase, my son, Executors under this my last will and testament, and direct that no security be required of the said Executors.

In witness hereof, I hereby affix my signature this twenty sixth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and three-1903--.

E. W. Fase.

Signed, published and declared by Edward W. Fase, as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us, all three present together, who at his request in his presence, and in the presence of one another, have hereunto subscribed our names as attesting witnesses this twenty sixth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and three. -1903--.

Joseph D. Wilson,
2108 North Broad St. Philadelphia, Pa.

Emma C. Wilson,
2108 North Broad St. Philadelphia, Pa.

Virginia:

In the Corporation Court of the City of Norfolk, on the 8th day of February, 1908.

The Last Will and Testament of Edward W. Fase, deceased, was this day produced in Court and it appearing to the Court from a physician's certificate and from the testimony of Joseph D. Wilson that Emma C. Wilson one of the two subscribing witnesses to said will, is unable to appear in Court here because of sickness, the said will was duly and fully proved by the oath of Joseph D. Wilson, one of the two subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded as the true Last Will and testament of the said Edward W. Fase, deceased.

And Elizabeth W. Fase one of the two executors named in said will, having in writing declined to take upon herself the burden of the execution thereof; Now on the motion of George S. Fase the other executor named in said will who took the oath required by law, and entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of ten thousand dollars, conditioned according to law, with American Bonding Company of Baltimore, surety the Court being satisfied of its ~~affidavit~~ sufficiency, certificate is granted the said George S. Fase, Executor as aforesaid for obtaining a probate of said will in due form.

And it is ordered that the said bond be recorded.

Signed, published and declared by Edward W. Faze, as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us, all three present together, who at his request in his presence, and in the presence of one another, have hereunto subscribed our names as attesting witnesses this twenty sixth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and three. -1903--
