

Will of Fannie E. Allen
I, Fannie E. Allen, being of sound and disposing mind, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills by me at any time made:

First: I desire all my just debts to be paid, if I shall owe any at my death.

Second: I hereby give, devise and bequeath unto my husband, S.J. Allen, my entire estate, both real and personal.

Examined
Third: I do hereby nominate and appoint my said husband, S.J. Allen, executor of this my last will and testament, with full power and authority to execute the same according to its true and intended meaning, and, having perfect confidence in his judgment and integrity, I direct that the said executor shall not give security.

In witness whereof I hereunto subscribe my name and affix my seal to this my last will and testament, which is written without any interlineation or erasure on one sheet of paper, at Suffolk, Virginia, this 6th day of March, 1913.

Fannie E. Allen

(SEAL).

The above signature of the testatrix, Fannie E. Allen, was made, and the foregoing will was acknowledged by the said Fannie E. Allen, in the presence of us, two competent witnesses, present at the same time; and we, the said witnesses, do hereunto subscribe the said will in the presence of the said testatrix and of each other, at the request of the said testatrix, this 6th day of March, 1913.

J. Brooke Pruden.

S. E. Everett.

VIRGINIA:

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County on Saturday, the 23rd day of August, 1913-

The last will and testament of Fannie E. Allen (late of this County), deceased, was this day produced before the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County and proved according to law by the oaths of J. Brooke Pruden and S. E. Everett, the two subscribing witnesses there-to, and is ordered to be recorded.

And on motion of S. J. Allen, who is named in said last Will and Testament as the Executor of the estate of said Fannie E. Allen, deceased, who made oath according to law, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, conditioned according to law (but without security, the said last will and testament directing that no security be required of him), certificate is granted him, the said S. J. Allen, as Executor for obtaining a probate of said last will and testament in due form.

And it is ordered that said bond be recorded.

Teste:

G. E. Bunting, Clerk.
