

The last will and testament of Chetta R. Powell, deceased, was this day produced in said office before the undersigned Clerk of said Court, fully proved according to law by the oath of Minnie B. Spivey, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and ordered to be recorded.

Teste:

G. E. Bunting, Clerk.

By S. J. Parker, D. C.

Huntersville, Va.

January 20/14

Frances Berry's Will
This 20th day of January, 1914, in the presence of witnesses, and while in my sound mind, I, Frances Berry, do bequeath and will all my personal and real property to my niece, Amelia J. Felton, as follows: The house and lots with all improvements thereon and all personal effects therein.

Examined
The money received from my two (2) societies is to be used by my niece, Amelia J. Felton, as follow: in defraying the expenses of my burial and the placing of a tomb stone at the head and foot of my grave. All and any wills that I have previously made to this one is void, and this is my last will and testament.

Signed this 20th day of January, 1914, by me: Frances ^{her} ~~mark~~ Berry.

Witness: H. E. Barco

(her)
Elizabeth x White.
(mark)

VIRGINIA:

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nonsensemond County the 3rd day of February, 1914-

The last will and testament of Frances Berry (late of this County), deceased, was this day produced in said office before the undersigned Clerk of said Court and proved according to law by the oaths of H. E. Barco and Elizabeth White, the two subscribing witnesses thereto and is ordered to be recorded.

Teste: G. E. Bunting, Clerk.

By S. J. Parker, D. C.