

I, Henry Jones, of Nansemond County, Virginia, hereby revoking all former Wills by me at any time made, do hereby make my last will and testament as follows:

*Copy of Henry Jones'
Will*

1st. After the payment of my just debts, I give and bequeath my entire estate, real, personal and mixed unto my two daughters, Lillian A Jones and Lucy May Jones, share and share alike.

2nd. I authorize and empower my Executrix hereinafter named to sell and convey any or all of my real estate, and to give to the purchasers thereof good and sufficient deeds therefor with the usual covenants of title. The purchasers of said real estate shall not be required to look after the proper application of the purchase money.

Examined,

3rd. I name and appoint my daughter Lillian A Jones as the Executrix of this my last will and testament and ask that she may be allowed to qualify as such by giving bond without security. If however at the time of my death, my daughter Lucy May Jones shall have become twenty one years of age it is my will and I hereby name and appoint her, as co-executrix, with her sister Lillian A Jones, of this my last will and testament and ask that she may be allowed to qualify as such without security.

Witness my hand and seal this the 29th day of November, A.D. 1895.

Signed, published and declared by ^WHenry Jones as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who in his presence, at his request, and in the presence of one another, have hereto subscribed our names as witnesses.

Henry Jones (SEAL).
