

VIRGINIA:

In the Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the County of Nansemond on Thursday the 30th day of December, 1909.

The last will and testament of Susan Ellen Caroline Quillin, late of this County, deceased, was this day produced before the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County and proved according to law by the oath of J. Walter Hosier, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, (it appearing that C. W. Lassiter, the other witness has departed this life) and is ordered to be recorded.

And on the motion of Richard Henry Franklin Quillin, who is named in said last will and testament as the executor of the estate of said Susan Ellen Caroline Quillin, deceased, who made oath according to law and entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Three Thousand Dollars, conditioned according to law, (but without security, the said last will and testament directing that no security be required of him.) Certificate is granted him, the said Richard Henry Franklin Quillin, as executor, for obtaining a probate of said last will and testament in due form.

And it is ordered that said bond be recorded.

I, Hiram T. Artman, of Suffolk, Nansemond County, Virginia, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made, do hereby make my last will and testament as follows:

1st. I direct that all my just debts shall be paid.

2nd. I give and devise unto my son, Townsend W. Artman, my carriage factory lot on Main Street, formerly Riddick Street, in Suffolk, Nansemond County, Virginia, together with all improvements thereon, but, upon the condition that he shall pay and satisfy all liens thereon.

3rd. I give and devise unto my daughter, Lizzie Artman Tatterson my house and lot on Franklin Street, in Suffolk, Nansemond County, Virginia, in fee simple.

4th. I name and appoint my son, Townsend W. Artman, the executor of this my last will and testament, and request that he may be allowed to qualify as such by giving bond without security.

Witness my hand and seal this the 8th day of December, 1905.

Hiram T. Artman. (SEAL).

Signed, sealed and acknowledged by Hiram T. Artman as and for his last will and testament, in our presence, who in his presence, at his request, and in the presence of each other have hereto subscribed our names as witnesses.

E. E. Holland. J. P. Lee.

In the name of God, Amen. I Charles C. Duke, of the County of Nansemond and State of Virginia, do make this, my last will and testament; as follows, to-wit:

1st- I desire that my body may be decently buried, without needless expense, in a manner corresponding to my estate and situation in life.

2nd- I direct that all my just debts be paid as soon after my decease as may be conveniently done, and to that end charge my whole estate, real and personal, with the same.

3rd- I give and devise all my real estate; whatsoever, situate in the County of Nansemond, in the State of Virginia, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, unto my dear wife, Mary A. Duke, for and during her natural life; and I give her, as her own forever, all the rents from the said real estate, which shall be due and owing to me at the time of my death. I also give and bequeath unto her for her use, comfort and enjoyment, during her natural life; with right to dispose of the same, or any part thereof, necessary for her proper support and maintenance, all my personal estate, of every kind and description, wherever found or located, subject to the demands of clauses One and Two of this my will.

4th- From and after the death of my said wife, I give and devise all the said real

Charles C.
Duke's
Will.
