

Jacob K Daughtrey's Will. Jacob K Daughtrey, of the County of Nansemond, and State of Virginia do by this writing make my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made heretofore.

In the first place, I direct that my Executor hereinafter named, shall collect what may be due to me, and pay my Debts, which are small & all proper expenses.

Secondly, I give and devise, unto my daughters Sarah & Duke and Margaret Elizabeth Pierce, two small tracts of Land in Nansemond County, one tract containing by estimation Sixty eight acres, more or less, lying on the ^{South} side of the Seaboard and Roanoke Rail Road, near Buckhorn & the other tract contains about thirty acres, more or less, and adjoins the Land of Sethro Butler, Jr. & Wimborne's estate and others, to be equally divided between them, to them and their heirs and assigns forever.

Thirdly, After the payment of my Debts, and all legal charges, any thing should remain of debts due me or any other property which my Executor may receive, I give the same to my son James K. D. Daughtrey and to his heirs and assigns forever.

Fourthly, Having heretofore by Sale and otherwise disposed of my estate to my Children, according to the Deeds made to them, I do hereby ratify all such conveyances, and I do hereby appoint my son James K. D. Daughtrey my son my Sole Executor, of this my Last Will and Testament and request that the Court will not require of him any security, for the execution of this trust. In witness whereof, I have set my hands and seal, this 15th day of July 1868.

Signed, sealed & acknowledged in our presence by the Testator, as his Last will and testament, all being present together.
