

June 14, 1910.

I, James J. Gray, being mentally sound and of lawful age, on Tuesday, June 14, 1910, make this my last will and testament.

I bequeath to my devoted and ever faithful wife, Dollner Lee Gray, all property belonging to me of any character whatsoever, real, personal or otherwise. That she not be required to give bond and that she be permitted to immediately take charge of the contents of our safe deposit box #52 of the Norfolk National Bank of Commerce.

As this document is in my own hand writing I understand that witnesses to signature are not necessary.

James J. Gray

VIRGINIA:

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County, on Tuesday the 17th day of January, 1911.

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of James J. Gray late of this county, deceased, was this day produced before the Clerk of this Court by Dollner Lee Gray, and there being no subscribing witnesses thereto, Hattie Parker Jones and Mamie Lee Tourtellot were sworn and deposed that they were acquainted with the handwriting of the testator and verily believe the said writing and the name thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the own hand of the testator. Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the true last will and testament of the said James J. Gray, deceased.

On motion of Dollner Lee Gray who made oath as the law directs and together with Mamie Lee Tourtellot, her surety, (who justified on oath as to her sufficiency) entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Fifteen Hundred Dollars, with condition according to law, certificate is granted her, the said Dollner Lee Gray for obtaining letters of administration on the estate of James J. Gray, deceased, with the last will and testament of said deceased annexed in due form.

And it is ordered that said bond be recorded.

Teste:

R. R. Smith, Clerk.

By A. L. Twitty, D. C.

James
J. Gray's
Will

Suffolk, Va.,

June 12, 1910