

I, Jason P. Holland, of Elwood, Va., Nansemond County, a farmer, make this my last will. I give, devise, bequeath my estate and property, real and personal, as follows, that is to say:

Jason P.
Holland's
Will -

1st. I desire that all my just debts shall be paid as soon after my death as practicable by my executrix as herein after named.

2nd. I desire that all my chattel estate shall be sold to the highest bidder, except such as my wife Marcilla A. Holland may wish to retain.

3rd. I desire that about sixty-acres of my land known as the Battle-field and originally a part of the James R. Holland, dec'd estate, and bounded by the lands of Abram Daughtrey, Enoch Baker, and Eley Daughtrey on the west, and Wilber L. Holland on the north, and R. E. L. Holland on the south-west, shall be sold to the highest bidder.

4th. I give and bequeath all my chattel and personal estate and effect of whatsoever nature or kind unto my wife, Marcilla A. Holland forever.

5th. I give and bequeath all my real estate of whatsoever nature or kind unto my wife Marcilla A. Holland to do as she may think best forever.

6th. I appoint Marcilla A. Holland, my wife of Elwood, Va., Nansemond County to be my executrix, and I request the Judge of our Nansemond County court to allow her to qualify without giving bond.

In witness whereof, I have signed this instrument as my will, near Elwood, Va., Nansemond County, on October 2nd, 1909.

----- (SEAL).

The foregoing will was this day signed by the said Jason P. Holland, and acknowledged by him as his last will, in the presence of us, the undersigned-subscribing witnesses, both of us being present at the same time, and each of us, at the request of the said Jason P. Holland, and in his presence, subscribed the said will as subscribing witnesses thereto.

Witness our hands, this second day of October, 1909.

Henry Steinhardt

Jason P. Holland.

VIRGINIA:

In the Clerk's Office of the circuit Court of Nansemond County on Monday the 24th day of October, 1910.

A paper writing dated the 2nd day of October, 1909, and purporting to be the last will and testament of Jason P. Holland, late of this county, deceased, was this day produced before the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County, and proved according to law by the oath of W. L. Holland, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded as and for the true last will and testament of the said Jason P. Holland, deceased.

And on the motion of Marcilla A. Holland, the Executrix named in the said last will and testament, who made oath as the law directs and together with Wilber L. Holland, her surety (who justified on oath as to his sufficiency)

5th. I give and bequeath all my real estate of whatsoever nature or kind unto my wife Marcilla A. Holland to do as she may think best forever.

6th. I appoint Marcilla A. Holland, my wife of Elwood, Va., Nansemond County to be my executrix, and I request the Judge of our Nansemond County court to allow her to qualify without giving bond.

In witness whereof, I have signed this instrument as my will, near Elwood, Va., Nansemond County, on October 2nd, 1909.
