

James W. Luke deceased
Will

April the 9, 1909.

I, Jas. W. Luke of the County of Nansemond, Virginia, hereby revoke all former wills by me at any time made, do hereby make my last will and testament as follows: first I devise that my body be decently buried, without needless expense and in a manner corresponding to my estate and situation in life. second I devise that all my just debts be paid as soon after my decease as conveniently may be.

1st. The farm on which I now reside I give to my two boys to be divided equally Samuel A. Luke to have the old homestead and Hurbert S. Luke to have that part next to old mill seat.

2nd. All of my chattel property to go Samuel A. Luke, and he to take care of his mother. The remainder of my children having had their share.

James (his x mark) ^{W.} Luke (Seal)

Signed, sealed and acknowledged by James W. Luke, or and for his last will and testament, in our presence, who in his presence, at his request, and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as within hereto.

M. G. Williams,

Jack Williams.

Virginia:

In the Clerk's office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County, on Saturday, the 10th day of February, 1912,

A paper writing dated the 9th day of April, 1909, and purporting to be the last will and testament of James W. Luke, late of this County, deceased, was this day produced before the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County, and proved according to law, by the oaths of M. G. Williams and Jack Williams, the two subscribing witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded, as and for the last will and testament of the said James W. Luke, deceased.

Teste: G. E. Bunting, Clerk,
