Dec. 22, 1910.

Virginia:

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County the 16th day of March, 1912.

A paper writing dated December 22, 1910, purporting to be the last will and testament of Josephine Savage, late of this county, deceased, was this day produced before the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County, and proved according to law by the oaths of A. E. Winborne and J. R. Winborne, the two subscribing witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded as and for the true last will and testament of the said Josephine Savage, deceased.

And on the motion of J. K. P. Daughtrey who is named in said last will and testament as Executor thereof, and who made oath according to law and together with L. J. Daughtrey, his surety (who justified on oath as to his sufficiency), entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Five Thousand Dollars, conditioned according to law, certificate is granted him the said J. K. P. Daughtrey, as Executor, for obtaining a probate of said last will and testament in due form. And it is ordered that said bond be recorded.
