Last Will and Testament of Skipwith Wilmer.

I, Skipwith Wilmer of Baltimore City, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament. I give, devise and bequeath to my brother Joseph Wilmer all my share and interest in the Horse Shoe Estate in Culpeper County, Virginia, and in the personal property thereon, and I direct that a note for fifteen thousand dollars given to me by him for the conditional purchase of said property be cancelled.

To my sister, Mrs. Helen W. Venable, I leave five thousand dollars.

To my brother, William N. Wilmer five thousand dollars.

To the Vestry of Christ Church in the City of Baltimore two thousand dollars.

To the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Maryland, for the Infirm and Disabled Clergy Fund, one thousand dollars.

All my books, pictures, furniture, silver, horses, carriages, and household and personal effects, I give to my two daughters, to be equally divided between them.

In a box at the Safe Deposit and Trust Company of Baltimore, registered in my name as attorney, will be found certain coupon bonds and other securities, part of which came to my daughters from the estates of their mother and grandmother. To these I have from time to time added other securities as gifts to my daughters, although I have in some cases reserved the coupons thereon during my life, giving them only the principal of the bonds. All of the securities in said box however, other than those designated as the property of my sister or of some other person, are the property of my said daughters and belong to them equally, except that in the division my daughter Helen is to be charged with the cost of a ground rent of forty-eight dollars per annum, reserved on a lot on Preston Street in the City of Baltimore, which I purchased for her from my two brothers at eight hundred dollars. These securities have been left to my two daughters or given to them by me, clear of any trust, and are theirs absolutely; and, as they form no part of my estate, are not to be
