

mds
Margaret Hunter's
Will

In the name of God, Amen. I, Margaret (her x mark) Hunter, of Nansemond County, Va., in sound mind this 6 day of April in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve (1912) bequeath to my lawfull son begotten of my body R. B. Hunter, all of that surtain track of land being situated in Holy Neck Magisterial Districk of the county aforesaid, on which I now live and containing (37 2/3) thirty more or less, which at my death shall be his and to his eres, his lawfull eres, begotten of his body.

In the presant of this I set my hand and seal this 6 day of April, (1912).

Margarett (her x mark) Hunter (SEAL)

(SEAL)

Witness, J. S. Owens.

This is to certify that R. B. Hunter has personable appeared before me in my county on oth and says that he is the beneficiary of this within will.

T. L. Butler, J. P.

April 12th, 1912.

Virginia:

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County on Thursday the 25th day of April, 1912.

A paper writing dated the 6th day of April, 1912, and purporting to be the last will and testament of Margaret Hunter, late of this county, deceased, was this day produced before the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County, and proved according to law by the oath of J. S. Owens, the subscribing witness thereto, and is ordered to be recorded as and for the last will and testament of the said Margaret Hunter, deceased.

Teste:

G. E. Bunting, Clerk,

By A. L. Twitty, D. C.

Oscar L. Voight's
Will

I, Oscar L. Voight of the City of Norfolk, Virginia, being of sound mind & disposing memory do make and declare this to be my last will & testament, hereby revoking all other wills heretofore by me at any time made.

First. I desire all my just debts to be paid if I shall owe any at the time of my death.

Second. I give and bequeath to my deloved wife, Alice E. Voight, all of my property, real and personal of every sort, kind and description wheresoever located, absolutely, confident in the belief that she will provide for my five children to the best of her ability; but in the event of her marriage after my death then the property of every kind remaining