

Martha W.
Fulgham's Will

In the name of God, Amen.

I, Martha W. Fulgham, of the town of Suffolk and County of Nansemond, State of Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this, my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

I give to my younger Son, John L. Fulgham, Jr., my house and lot on Jackson St., in town of Suffolk, County of Nansemond, and State of Virginia.

Witness my hand, this 25th day of April, Eighteen Hundred and Ninety Eight.

Martha W. Fulgham.

Signed, published and declared by Martha W. Fulgham as and for her last will and testament, in the presence of us, who in her presence, at her request, and in the presence of one another, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

S. P. Vanderslice

J. E. Overton.

VIRGINIA:

In the Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the County of Nansemond on Monday the 19th day of September, 1910.

The last will and testament of Martha W. Fulgham, late of this County, deceased, was this day produced before the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the County of Nansemond for probate. And it appearing that S. P. Vanderslice, one of the subscribing witnesses to the said last will and testament is without the State, J. E. Overton the other subscribing witness to the said last will and testament was sworn and declared that the signature of the said Martha W. Fulgham to said last will and testament and the said will was acknowledged by her, the said Martha W. Fulgham, in his presence and in the presence of the said S. P. Vanderslice, the other subscribing witness thereto, present at the same time, and that he the said J. E. Overton and the said S. P. Vanderslice subscribed their respective names as witnesses to said will in the presence of the said Martha W. Fulgham and in the presence of each other together at the same time. Wherefore it is considered that the said last will and testament is duly and fully proved and it is ordered that the same be recorded as the true and last will and testament of the said Martha W. Fulgham, deceased.

Teste:

R. R. Smith, Clerk.
