

*Mary Ann
Milteer's
Will.*

In the name of God, Amen. I Mary Ann Milteer, of the County of Nansemond and State of Virginia, being of sound mind and memory and considering this frail and transitory life, do therefore make, ordain, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament. That is after all my just and lawful debts and burial expenses are paid, I give and bequeath to James V. Woodard my home tract of land known as a part of the Archable Milteer land, containing by estimation one hundred and sixty three and a half (163 1/2) acres and bounded as follows, to wit:

Commencing at Barbecue Swamp, on the west side of the old Somerton Road, thence along the line of James Milteer's Est., west, to the line known as the Rawls line, thence North along said line to the Green line, thence along said line to the line of Henry Duke, thence northeast along the lines of John Holmes and Jesse Holland to the Somerton Road, thence along said Road West to the first station.

As Witness the following signature and seal this 20 day of February, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and one.

Witness,

Mary Ann (her x mark) Milteer.

Witness, D. S. Goodman.
J. A. Baker.

Virginia:

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County
on Saturday the 7th day of October, 1911.

A paper writing dated the 20th day of February, 1901, and purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary Ann Milteer, late of this County, deceased, was this day produced before the clerk of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County and proved according to law by the oath of J. A. Baker, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded as and for the last will and testament of the said Mary Ann Milteer, deceased.

Teste:

R. R. Smith, Clerk,
By M. M. Watkins, D. C.

*Wiley Redd's
Will.*

In The Name of God, Amen:- I, Wiley Redd, of the County of Nansemond, State of Virginia, considering the uncertainty of life, do make and establish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made.

First. I direct that all my just debts, if any, shall be paid as soon after my death as practicable.

Second. After the payment of my debts, if any there be, I give and bequeath to my sons, J. V. Redd, Alexander Redd and Levi Redd, the sum of Ten Dollars each, I having heretofore given them a large portion of my estate.
