Mills Riddick's Will.

I Mills Riddick of the Town of Suffolk County, of Nansemond and State of Virginia, considering the uncertainty of life and the duty of being prepared for death, do make and ordain this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all former wills by me, at any time made.

1st. I give and bequeath unto my dearly beloved wife Mary Riddick, the sum of Six thousand Dollars, to be raised in cash, out my estate, to her and her heirs forever.

2nd. I give and devise unto my said wife my two lots of land in the said Town of Suffolk, whereon I reside, together with all the buildings and improvements thereon and lands attached thereto: also the following slaves, namely, Charles, Hum, Lucy Charlott and her children, Lucy and her children, and any five other of my slaves, whom she may choose, and select: My carriage and horses; all my plate household and kitchen furniture of every sort kind and description, I say to her and and her heirs forever. And I do hereby declare my intention to be that this provision together with the provision contained in the first clause and subsequent provisions herein made for my said wife, shall be in lieu of her dower and distributive share in my Estate.

3^d. I give and devise unto my son Miles Edward Reddick, the land and plantation, situated on the White Marsh, in this County, commonly called the "old Place" on which I formerly resided and which I derived from my father, I say, to my said son Miles Edward Reddick, for and during his natural life only: at his death I give and devise the said land and plantation to the lawfully begotten child or children, whom my said son may leave living at his death: and should my said son leave no such child or children, then and in that case, I give and devise the said land and plantation to my surviving sons.

4th. I give and devise unto my son Josiah Reddick all my right title and interest, both in law and equity which I have of in and to the land and plantation with the Mill thereto attached whereon he resides, commonly called "Soldier's Hope" late the residence and property of my deceased brother Col: Josiah Reddick.

5th. As my son Washington La. Fayette Reddick, is now from home, engaged in the study of the Law and it being my wish and intention that he shall continue his studies, I hereby charge my Estate with the payment of One Thousand Dollars, for that object. which sum of money is to be raised out of my Estate without breaking in upon any of the other legacies herein before mentioned.

6th. It is my will and desire and I do hereby order and direct, that my old and faithful negro-man Edmond, shall be allowed to remain on the plantation where he now stays, and my Executors herein after named are directed to pay him annually the sum of Twenty Five dollars; should he live so long as to become aged and infirm, I charge and require my Executors to take care of and support him comfortably out of my estate.

7th: All the rest and residues of my estate of every kind, sort and description, in part or in whole, except lancy or action, I will, order and direct shall be sold and conveyed by my Executors hereinafter to be named, when in their opinion it can be most advantageously done, and on such terms as they shall think most expedient in the proceeds of sales (except the "Albemarle Company's Stock" which I shall hereafter dispose of) I give and bequeath to my sons, - Richard & Redbeck Senr. Joseph Riddick, M.D. Edward Riddick, Nathaniel Riddick and Washington La. Fay McRiddick: my daughters Mary A. Webb, Juliana Wood and Cornelia Ballou, and the living children of my daughters Diana Desorway, - and Maria J. McGuire, and to be divided into ten shares or portions. But before this distribution and division of sales takes place, all advancements made by me to any of my children must be fairly valued and deducted from their portions, and from the shares or portions given to the living children of my daughters Diana Desorway and Maria J. McGuire all advancements made by me to their fathers must be subjected to the same valuation and deduction with my sons and daughters as aforesaid. My object and intention is, to produce equality in all the shares mentioned in this clause of my will.

8th: As my share or stock in the Albemarle Company situate in the State of North-Carolina, is, as I design it shall be, liable to sale, under the immediate preceding clause of this my will, I intrust upon my Executors hereinafter named to keep a vigilant eye upon the movements and progress of that Company, and to be governed in the sale of it, by the force of circumstances. Until a sale shall be made I give and devise to my said wife, one third part of the dividends or profits, arising and accruing therefrom: After a sale shall be effected, I give to my said wife, one third part of the proceeds thereof; the remaining two thirds of the dividends or profits and of the sales, I give to my said sons and daughters, and the living children of my daughters Diana Desorway and Maria J. McGuire, as mentioned in the seventh clause of this will.

^{9th} I do hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife Mary Riddick, Executor, and

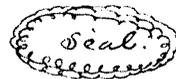

My sons, Richard H. Riddick Sen. and Nathaniel Riddick Executors of this my last will and testament I request the Court, to whom this paper writing shall be offered for probate, to permit my said Executors and Executors to qualify without requiring security of them for the performance of the trust reposed in them, and in the event of only one or more of them, should qualify, I repeat the request that no security, be required of her, him or them. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this 28th day of February 1844.

I the within named Miles Riddick, do make this present codicil to my within will, which I hereby declare shall be taken as a part thereof. I do hereby revoke so much of the devise and bequest contained in the seventh clause thereof as would embrace the sale of all my slaves which I had not particularly bequeathed and disposed of; and in lieu thereof give and devise all my slaves, with their future increase of the females (except those already disposed of in my said will) to my sons Richard H. Riddick Sen. Josiah Riddick, Miles Edward Riddick, Nathaniel Riddick of Washington La. Jay M. Riddick, my daughters Mary A. Webb Juliana Wood and Cornelia Boulton, and to the living children of my daughter Diana D. Sosway and Maria J. McGuire, and to be divided into ten shares or portions, to be divided between them in the same manner and subject to the same terms and conditions as mentioned and expressed in the said 7th clause of my said will. No other part of the said 7th clause is to be affected by this codicil. My intent and meaning simply is, that my slaves shall be divided.

Witness my hand and seal this 18th day of June 1844.
