

Oscar L. Voight
Will

I, Oscar L. Voight of the City of Norfolk, Virginia, being of sound mind & disposing memory do make and declare this to be my last will & testament, hereby revoking all other wills heretofore by me at any time made.

First. I desire all my just debts to be paid if I shall owe any at the time of my death.

Second. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Alice E. Voight, all of my property, real and personal of every sort, kind and description wheresoever located, absolutely, confident in the belief that she will provide for my five children to the best of her ability; but in the event of her marriage after my death then the property of every kind remaining unsold to go to my said five children or such of them as may then be alive, share and share alike.

Third. I nominate and appoint my brother Joseph Voight of the City of Norfolk, Virginia, Executor of this my last will and request that he be allowed to qualify without surety on his official bond, and I further request that no inventory or appraisement be made of my estate.

Given under my hand this 28th day of May, A. D. 1912.

Norfolk, Va. May 28th, 1912.

Oscar L. Voight..

Signed, published and declared by Oscar L. Voight, the testator as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, all three present at the same time, who at his request in his presence and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as subscribing witnesses.

John B. Vought.

Theodore S. Garnett, Jr.

Virginia:

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Norfolk
County on the 15th day of July, 1912.

The last will and testament of Oscar L. Voight, late of Norfolk County, deceased, was produced before me, proved by the oaths of John B. Vought and Theodore S. Garnett, Jr., two of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and ordered to be recorded.

And on the motion of Joseph Voight, the executor therein named, who made oath thereto, and entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of One Hundred Dollars, without security, agreeably to the request of the testator, conditioned according to law, which bond is ordered to be recorded, certificate is granted him for obtaining probate of said will in due form.
