Will of
O. V. Smith

I, O. V. Smith do constitute this my last will and testament as follows, to-wit:
I give and bequeath to my dear wife Annie Cooke Smith my entire Estate real, personal and mixed to do with as she may wish or desire. I hereby constitute and appoint my wife Annie Cooke my sole Executrix and request the Court to allow her to qualify as such without bond or security.

Given under my hand and seal this seventh day of August, 1884.

O. V. Smith (Seal)

Virginia: -

At the Court of Hustings for the City of Portsmouth held on the 14th day of February, 1894.

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of O. V. Smith, late of this City, deceased, was this day presented to the Court, and there being no subscribing witnesses to the said will, W. V. H. Williams and John C. Aston were sworn and severally deposed that they are well acquainted with the handwriting of the said O. V. Smith, deceased, and verily believe that the said will, and the signature thereto subscribed, are wholly in the handwriting of the said O. V. Smith, deceased; whereupon the same is ordered to be recorded as the true last will and testament of the said O. V. Smith, deceased. And on the motion of Annie Cooke Smith, the only executrix named in the said will, who made oath as the law directs, and entered into a bond in the penalty of Fifteen Thousand Dollars, conditioned according to law (but without security, the will directing the none should be required of her, and which said bond being acknowledged by the obligor therein, is ordered to be recorded) certificate is granted the said Annie Cooke Smith for obtaining a probate of the said will in due form,
