

R.C. Gilliam
- Will -

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS!

That I, Richard C. Gilliam of the County of Nansemond in Virginia, hereby make and publish this my last Will and Testament--

Examined,

Item 1- I wish my just debts paid.

Item 2- My life is insured for sums aggregating $12,000.00 a portion of which is payable to my estate, and a portion to my wife and children; my will is, that from my estate there shall be paid to each of my children, a sum sufficient, when added to what they will receive from my life insurance, to make each child have the sum of $3000.00. The portions of my infant children, I desire my Executor, who will also be their guardian to pay over to said guardian, to be deposited on interest account in National Bank of Suffolk, till they severally become of age. I desire my wife out of the remainder of my estate to educate those of my children, that have not yett received an education, so as to place them in a position of equality with those that have.

R. C. Gilliam.

Item 3- All of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, of whatever nature and description, I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Annie Lee Gilliam; and placing, as I do, implicit confidence in her integrity of purpose, and uprightness of character, I request that she Execute this will, and that she be allowed to qualify as Executrix without security on her bond- I also appoint her guardian of my infant children. I have made no provision for O. B. Gilliam, feeling that my wife will deal with him as in her judgment will best promote his interest. I therefore leave her to deal with him according as future developments may suggest, fixing upon her no obligations whatever in this behalf.

Witness my hand and seal this 23rd of September, 1912.

R. C. Gilliam

(SEAL).

Signed, sealed and acknowledged in the presence of the testator, at his request and we be present together at the time of attesting same.

F. J. Morrison.

T. A. Barbee.

VIRGINIA:

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County on the 12th day of October, 1912-

The last will and testament of R. C. Gilliam, deceased, was this day produced in said office before the undersigned Clerk of said Court, and fully proved according to law by the oaths of F. J. Morrison and T. A. Barbee, the two subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded.

And on motion of Annie Lee Gilliam, the Executrix named in said last will and testament, who made oath according to law, and entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Twenty Thousand ($20,000.00) Dollars, conditioned according to law (but without security, the said last will and testament directing that no security be required of her) certificate is granted her, the said Annie Lee Gilliam, as Executrix, for obtaining a probate of said will and testament in due form.

And it is ordered that said bond be recorded.

G. E. Bunting, Clerk.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, I, Joseph A. Parker, of the City of Portsmouth, State of Virginia, do make, publish and declare, this my last will and testament, revoking all others by me heretofore made.

First: I desire that no appraisement be made of my estate and that all of my just debts be paid as soon after my death as may be conveniently done.

Second: I bequeath unto St. Paul's Catholic Church, of Portsmouth, Virginia, the sum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.)

Third: I bequeath unto St. Leonard's House Convent, School, Holy Child Jesus, number 3833 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the sum of One Thousand Dollars, ($1,000.), and at the death of my widow the additional sum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.)

Fourth: I bequeath unto the Hudson County Catholic Protectory, of Arlington, New Jersey, the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00)
