

Suffolk, Va., May 2nd., 1900.

This is the last will and testimony of Sarah E. Norfleet.

First: I want all my burial expenses and doctor's bill paid, the remainder of my property divided as I direct.

I give to my daughter Mrs. Sarah Katharine Brothers $100.00 (one hundred dollars) and one bed quilt (chain design with roses.)

To my daughter Mrs. Annie R. Ballard $100.00 (One hundred Dollars), the one mahogany table in sitting room, and one bed quilt (Rising sun).

To my two sons Robert J. and John B. Norfleet one half ($1/2$) interest in my house and lot in which I live at 708 Bank St., to be equally divided (I expect them to bear my burial expenses and doctor's bill).

I give to my daughter Elizabeth E. Norfleet $1/2$ (one half) interest in the house and lot in which I live at 708 Bank St., to do with as she pleases. I also give to Elizabeth E. Norfleet all of the furniture in my bed room, including, bedstead and bedding, washstand, bureau, table, chairs, wardrobe, lamp, clock, matting and indeed everything in the room, also the lace curtains, rugs, two rick chairs, shades, one mahogany table, my portrait over mantel, also such pictures as was hers and one marble top table, one sewing machine and $500.00 (give hundred dollars), also all of my bed and table linen glass and silverware. The bed & furniture in Elizabeth E. Norfleet's little room all belong to her except the desk which is John B. Norfleets.

I give to my granddaughter Mrs. Sarah Katharine West $100.00 (one hundred dollars).

I wish the rest of my household and kitchen furniture to be divided or sold as my children think best. I wish my sons Robert J. and John B. Norfleet to settle my estate without bond. If there is anything left after paying all my expenses I want it to be equally divided between my five children. I want my estate settled at an early date after my death, as I direct.

(signed) SARAH E. NORFLEET.
