of T. J. Wright

T. J. Wright
Will of,

It is my desire that after my death my wife shall, take charge of my effects, and use them as she thinks best for the maintenance and care of her self and children after paying all my just debts, no bond shall be required of her.

If it can be so arranged I would like for my Son T. J. Wright, Jr., to inherit that part of my interest in the old homestead which was set apart as the widows dower, after my fathers death. If more than his interest in my Estate he may arrange to pay the different to my Estate after he becomes of age.

If so arranged that my son, does inherit the above tract. I would be glad, of my wife, at her death would will to our daughter Annie, provided she survives her mother our home in Churchland including a lot 100 ft on the public road, Starting from the South west corner of Mrs Griffins lot and extending back to the land of E. C. Wright. This however is only a request since I have already given to my wife the above mentioned lot. I want my daughter to have (1/3) One third interest in my Estate equal to that of her Brother or mother.

I do not wish any, public sale of my effects, but want my wife to dispose of them as she thinks best.

The above is written in full possession of my mental faculties.
