Wiley Redd's
Will

In The Name of God, Amen:- I, Wiley Redd, of the County of Nansemond, State of Virginia, considering the uncertainty of life, do make and establish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made.

First. I direct that all my just debts, if any, shall be paid as soon after my death as practicable.

Second. After the payment of my debts, if any there be, I give and bequeath to my sons, J. V. Redd, Alexander Redd and Levi Redd, the sum of Ten Dollars each, I having heretofore given them a large portion of my estate.

Third. I further give and bequeath to my son Walter W. Redd, the sum of Ten Dollars, as I have already given him such part of my estate as I think he is entitled to receive.

Fourth. All of the rest and residue of my estate, of every kind and character, including all of my real, mixed and personal property, I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter, Maggie G. Rabey, in absolute estate, as partial compensation for caring and providing for me during and through a long period of years and on account of my love and affection for her.

Fifth. I nominate and appoint my daughter Maggie G. Rabey, as executrix of this my last will and testament.

In testimony Whereof I have hereunto affixed my signature this the Eighth (8th) day of January, 1910.

Wiley Redd..

Signed, acknowledged, published and declared as and for his last will and testament, by the testator, Wiley Redd in our presence and we, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have by his request, signed our names as attesting witnesses, this the Eighth (8th) day of January, 1910.

Josiah Leake.

W. H. Jordan.

(W.H.)

Virginia:

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County, on Thursday the 26th day of October, 1911.

The last will and testament of Wiley Redd, late of this County, deceased, was this day produced before the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County and proved according to law by the oaths of Josiah Leake and W. H. Jordan, the subscribing witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded.

And on the motion of Maggie G. Rabey, who is named in said last will and testament as the Executrix of the estate of Wiley Redd, deceased, who made oath according to law, and together with The United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, by Richard L. Woodward, its duly appointed attorney in fact, executed and together with said Richard L. Woodward attorney in fact aforesaid, acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Five Hundred Dollars, with condition according to law, certificate is granted her, the said Maggie G. Rabey, for obtaining a probate of said last will and testament in due form.

And it is ordered that said bond be recorded.
