

Copy of
Will of
W. V. H.
Williams

I, W. V. H. Williams, do constitute and make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others as follows: I give and bequeath, absolutely and in fee simple, to my beloved wife, Sallie K. Williams, my entire estate, real, personal and mixed of whatever kind and wherever found, and any and all life insurance that I may have at the time of my decease. And I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife Sallie K. Williams, my sole executrix and respectfully request the Court to allow her to qualify as said executrix without bond or security.

Given under my hand and seal this 12th day of May in the year 1891.

W.V.H. Williams (Seal)

Virginia:

At the Court of Hustings for the City of Portsmouth, July 26th, 1898.

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of W.V.H. Williams, late of this City, deceased, was this day presented to the Court, and there being no subscribing witnesses to the said will, John C. Emmerson and James H. Toomer were sworn and severally deposed that they are well acquainted with the handwriting of the said W.V.H. Williams, deceased; whereupon the same is ordered to be recorded as the true last will and testament of the said W.V.H. Williams, deceased; and on the motion of Sallie K. Williams, the only executrix named in the said will, who made oath as the law directs, and entered into bond in the penalty of Five Thousand Dollars, conditioned according to law, (but without security, the will directing that none should be required as her, and which said bond being acknowledged by the obligor therein, is ordered to be recorded) certificate is granted the said Sallie K. Williams for obtaining a probate of the said will in due form,
