

This being my last will and testament I want my interest in the land to be equally divided among my three Sisters Mary, Virginia and Florence with no division except in case of marriage of one or more of them. To my Brother Robert I leave half dozen $\frac{1}{4}$ little spoons. To Virginia I leave my Sewing machine. To Mary my watch & chain. To Florence the rest of jewelry & my bureau. I want to be decently interred but in a plain manner. my coffin not to cost over \$15.00 or \$20.00 September 30th 83.

Bel. Sandridge.

In New Kent County Court November 12th 1883 The foregoing writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Bel. Sandridge deceased was this day presented in court by Lewis U. Terrell and there being no subscribing witnesses thereto. A. A. Slater and Geo. J. Green were sworn and severally depose that they were well acquainted with the hands writing of the ^{testator and} ^{deceased} believe the said writing of the testator and the writing of the name thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the testator's own hand, whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the true last will and testament of the said Bel. Sandridge deceased.

Teste.