

1886. I should die before my children I want what I have leave behind equally divided between my three children Ellen M. Morris Martha L. Leach & Ada B. Chandler. I leave it ^{and I give it to their children} ~~there~~. I do not want my land sold nor the money I have used for any thing, but to secure a house and home for them and their children. it must not be used to pay any debt their husbands may contract. the land can be valued and one of them take that and the other two have money to ^{buy} ~~pay~~ them a house and some land. if it cannot be equally divided without selling the piece joining Dr. Stater may be sold for an equal division but for nothing else. I would rather that would be valued and one of the children keep that land instead of selling it. this is my will written by me when all alone in my room. this the fifteenth day of February 1886.
