

In the name of God amen. I Jane B. Pollard of the County of New Kent, born of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and constitute this my last will and testament. Whereas my father Josiah Higgins, dead, by his will gave me the right to dispose of all of the property which he left me, now in pursuance of said right, I give to my esteemed husband, Edward C. Pollard, all of the property, real and personal, which was left to me by my said father, as well as any and all other estate, real or personal, now owned or hereafter to be acquired by me.

Lastly, I appoint my husband, Edward C. Pollard, Executor to this my will, and desire that he may not be required to give any security for his administration of the same.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this the 11th of March, 1865.

Jane B. Pollard.

Signed by the testatrix in our presence, both of us together and in her presence at the same time, who hereunto set our hands, as witnesses at the request of the testatrix.
