

I Patsy Bailey of the County of New Kent being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and declare this my writing as and for my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

I give to my son Madison J Bailey the tract of land upon which I now reside, and which was devised to me by the last will of my brother Thomas Pearson, (the said tract of land is known as "Hollands") and it being the same tract of land left by my father to my brother Thomas Pearson upon the condition that he pay to me the sum of One hundred dollars, which amount was never paid to me and I give to each of my other children - Ed Bailey, Annie P Bailey, Maria, Elizabeth H Bailey, Robert P Bailey, John M Bailey, and Mary Bailey five dollars, to be paid to them by Madison J Bailey, provided he accepts the provisions of this will, and appoint him my Executor without security. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 24th day of March 1888.

Patsy Bailey (Sister)
mark

In witness whereof will and signatures,

J N Harris

Philip Riley

New Kent County Court April 11th 1889.

The foregoing writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Patsy Bailey was this day put into Court proved by the oaths of J N Harris and Philip Riley the two subscribing witnesses thereto and

Examined

I want decide. First which was devised to me by the last will of my brother Thomas Pearson, (the said last of lands is known as "Hollister") And it being the same tract of land left by my father to my brother Thomas Pearson upon the condition that he pay to me the sum of one hundred dollars. which amount was never paid to me & I give to each of my other children - Ed. Bailey, Annie P. Bailey, Maria, Elizabeth H. Bailey, Robert P. Bailey, John M. Bailey, and Wm. Bailey five dollars. to be paid to them by Madison J. Bailey, provided he accepts the provisions of this will, and appoint him my Executor without security. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 24th day of March 1888.

Pulsy Bailey (Seal)
March 16

Witness to the will and signature,
J. Morris
Philip Riley

New Kent County Court April 11th 1889.

The foregoing writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Pulsy Bailey was this day put into Court proved by the Oaths of J. Morris and Philip Riley the two subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded.

Teste

J. Morris Clerk.

In the name of Good amen. I James W. Simbich, of New Kent

County, Virginia, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original of the same as the same is now in my possession and I have compared the same with the original and find them to be the same.