

In the presence of God & man, in view of the shortness of life and desires to settle my worldly affairs, which I have strength not ability so to do, and with sacred and dispassing heart & mind, I Phil Mandy, of the Co of New Kent St of Va do make public & declare this to be my last will & testament. I give to my wife one one moiety four Acres of land & I also give to me, to be one one moiety three bags, horses back clippers Acres horses & upon her death, the rest of the land, is to go to my son John M., to a grain h in after his death, to the nearest Acres from Acres to Acres & I also want the incorporator of my State after my first wife is hanged the rest is to go, to my wife. The Count is the the
to do.

Phil Mandy.

Sealed & signed & acknowledged by the above named testator to his last will and testament, in our presence, & the presence of each other

J. Bailey
H. Harris
H. Leephoad
H. Bracey.

like is known the rest is to go, to my wife, the Court is now the same.

New Kent County, Virginia: Will No. 1, 1864-1887
www.virginiapioneers.net

Phil Mooty.

It is seen & acknowledged by the same named estate, that his last will and testament, in and among, the presence of each other.

J. Bailey
Wm. Harris
J. Leightfoss
L. Brown.

Nov. 10th 1878.

The administrator Thomas Bailey, he is to give Security.

Notation Warrant

At a Court held November 14th 1878.

The last will and testament of Phil Mooty, deceased, was then read per into Court, proved by the oath of Wm. Harris, J. Leightfoss, and L. Brown, the three subscribing witnesses.
The Court ordered was recorded.

Filed

J. M. Brown Clerk.