

In the name of God, Amen, I Robert A. Fairholt of the County of New Kent and State of Virginia being of sound mind but weak in body, do make this my last will and testament to wit: I will and desire that my farm lying and situate in New Kent County be lent to my beloved wife Martha A. Fairholt during her widowhood and I will that my son Avery G. Fairholt have the management of my said farm from which I will and desire that he make a decent support for my said widow and her children to wit Clara E. Henry, George T. and Ruth Fair-holts, and that my son Avery G. manage the said farm to the best of his ability to keep the said farm in good order, and to furnish the said Martha A. Fairholt and her children before mentioned a decent support, the said Avery G. Fairholt to have the privilege of cutting and selling one hundred and fifty cords of virgin growth wood every year, one hundred of which I will to be sold for the benefit of my said widow and her children before mentioned and fifty to be sold for the benefit of the said Avery G. Fairholt, The said wood is only to be cut of Virgin Growth timber so long as there is any on my aforesaid farm. If at any time my said wife Martha should marry, then I will that she shall have out of my estate what the law allows and that only and that my estate be equally divided among all my children except a certain debt which I will and devise my son George T. to have and to hold in his own right, the said debt to be appraised by disinterested parties and the amount of said appraisement to be deducted from the share of my estate that may fall to the said George T. ^{and} and I will that the said George T. Fairholt be not required to pay any interest on the said debt.

I will that the said George F. Faircloth be not required to pay any funeral on ~~that~~ amount that the said Coft be appraised at. 3rd I will and desire that so soon as my sons Henry E. and George F. arrive at the age of twenty one years that they be put upon the same footing with my other sons, and that they no longer have claims upon my estate and that my daughters Clara E. and Ruth E. do soon as they marry shall not have claims upon my estate until there be a general division of said estate. but my daughters Clara E. and Ruth shall have a decent support as long as they remain single or until a general division of said estate. I hereby appoint my sons Robert A. and Luther Faircloth my executors and I will and desire that they look after and see that my estate is properly managed, they to have the authority and power to make any or such disposition in regard to said estate as they may deem necessary to hold the said estate together, and I respectfully request the court not to require any security of my executors herein mentioned, it being my will and desire that they give no security as my executors.
